Here is one guest who doesn't know enough to go home and stay there, or to duck out while the ducking is good but the Big Boss isn't home yet, so here goes.

We got to thinking today as we watched the rain beat the tar out of our brand new geraniums about just why there has been the great exodus from the big cities into our little towns. We wonder if it has anything to do with people just wanting a geranium to worry about.

There must be a lot of the good old dirt farmer in most of us. And, what a wonderful place for the kids.

The rapid growth in population of Arlington Heights, Palatine, Mr. Prospect and the rest of the towns around this area leads us to wonder how long it is going to take for this section to be known as metropolitan with Chicago becoming the suburb.

In SPRINGFIELD sits a bill that seems to come up for passage about once a year that would incorporate all suburbs surrounding Chicago into what will be lovingly called Greater Chicago. Looking into past history, it is discovered that this "peachy" idea has been turning up like a bad penny for years and years.

Some of the advantages of this dream pointed to with pride are big city police and big city firemen.

We don't know how others feel about this, but we like the friendly nods we get from our police force that are real greetings instead of the impersonal snarls meted out in the big town. We don't feel that being friendly impedes their efficiency either. Our children feel "a cop" is a friend to be looked up to, not someone to fear. We're hoping the bill gets the boot this time too.

TALK ABOUT your City of Good Neighbors, let's. Some friends of ours moved into town a short time ago and can't get over the helpfulness and gracious-ness of some of the merchants. We say some of the merchants because we don't think they have had a chance to come in contact with all of them yet. We're sure all merchants are the same.

Then, too, the pot of coffee complete with coffee cake the neighbor across the street brought over right after the moving van left sort of cemented relations. We are told one can live in the same apartment in Chicago for years and never know who lives next door. How exclusive!

WE WERE LISTENING in on a conversation the other day pertaining to medical centers and doctor's hours. Now all of us know, both from hearsay and personal experience, how overworked doctors are in this day and age. No one ever begrudges the small amount of time off the poor fellows take but the gist of this talk was why do all doctors take the same time off? Comes Wednesday afternoon and, psst, they are all out of operation.

One of the suggested remedies was a medical center, all offices in one dreamy building with a common switchboard as a center for all calls.

That would mean there would be one place in the community for all emergency calls to go and one central office with a girl who would know just which doctor was on tap at the moment. It would also mean staggered off hours. Sounds wonderful!

WE KNOW THAT if the Boss were writing this he would have some comment to make on the approval of the Kimball Hill project but as we can't begin to know just what that comment would be, we will just say we hope the people who plan to live there enjoy it and that the developers carry out their plans for sewer, water, and school.

WE SAW the wonderful story on Tom Hart in a metropolitan paper and while we think his political ambitions and accomplishments are fine, he will never know how grateful we are for his remembering that tid-bit about the bone meal and the rabbits.

Up until now the rodents and our family have been sharing the garden. We have even flavored the plants for them with red pepper, a tip we were given by someone who assured us bunnies hated the spicy stuff.

Our rabbits just loved it. It acted as sort of an hors d'oeuvre to the main meal of flowers and shrubs. Our garden is now white with bone meal and, Mr. Hart, we hope you know your rabbits

SUMMER READING PROGRAM

Members of Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic parish witnessed the official ground breaking for the proposed school at its site at 432 S. Mitchell st., Arlington Heights, Sunday afternoon. The building will also serve as a temporary church for the parish. —Folkman Photo.

Pictured are the participants in the actual ground breaking left to right: John Barrett, president of the Holy Name society; Mrs. William L. Hatch, president of the Catholic Woman's club; The Very Rev. Msgr. Eugene Mulcahey of Maryville Academy, Des Plaines; and Rev. Harold T. O'Hara, pastor of the church.

Sunday also marked the Feast day of the parish; the first communion for the children attending the public schools; and the procession for the May crowning of the Blessed Virgin. Special guests were three Dominican Sisters from St. Bartholomew church, Chicago, and Father Jerome O. S. B., from St. Procopius in Lisle. The school is not expected to be ready until the fall of 1954.

3-Ring Circus In Arlington Monday; Two Performances

Young and old alike will thrill to the Hagen Brothers famous 3-ring circus being brought to Arlington Heights for a one-day stand Monday, June 1, by the Arlington-Prospect Kiwais club.

Intrepid aerial artists, equilibrists and gymnasts who scoff at the laws of gravity and dauntlessly dare disaster, animals subjugated by kindness and patience to the will of men, lovely bespangled ladies and joyful jesting clowns, are just a few of the highlights in store for those who attend either of the two performances.

The first show begins at 4:15 p.m., with doors opening at 3:15 p.m., and the second performance begins at 8:15 p.m., doors opening at 7:15 p.m.

TEN ACRES of land on Foundry rd., near Northwest hwy., and Hickory ave. have been set aside to pitch the circus tents.

Heading the list of famous names on the circus roster are such acts as: The Five Caudillo Sisters, tumblers; Miss LaLain, premiere aerial artist; the internationally-famous Con Concello, tight wire walker; the aerial ballet of beautiful girls at the top of the arena; Dixie, world's largest performing elephant; Clark's canine comedians; the Cordens, double trapeze act; a group of the funniest clows entour, headed by the well known comedian, John Toy, an equestrian display of shetland ponies, as well as the Hagen Brothers Circus black and white liberty horses.

These are just a few of the many features presented in the two hour performance and tickets may be purchased in advance from Kiwanis club members.

DR. LELAND Linn, president of the Kiwanis club, said, "Many tickets have already been sold, but 3,000 can be seated at each performance, so there is plenty of room for everyone who would like to attend."

Tickets are 60 cents for children and $1.25 for adults, with reserved seats just 60 cents extra. A phone call to any of the following will result in tickets delivered to the caller's door: Smith and Dawson, Prospect Heights, CL 3-5501; Bruce L. Corbett, Prospect Heights, CL 3-9302; the Cake Box, Arlington Heights, CL 3-4891; William Pailey, Arlington Heights, CL 3-3281; E. W. Lindemann, Arlington Heights, CL 3-2208; William Kopplin, Arlington Heights, CL 3-7854; Van's, Mount Prospect, CL 3-1218.

$1500 'Over Ceiling' Cars, No Parking Meters And Federal Schools Now In Venezuela

My respect for our southern neighbors is increasing. Venezuela is attempting to accomplish within a few years many of the strides to better living in the U. S., for which the people of this country have great respect.

One of their regrets is that due to the obstinacy of one member of the first Venezuelean congress the adoption of the constitution was delayed one day, and the country's birthday is July 5th, not July 4th.

Venezuela is not an impoverished country. Perhaps living in some rural districts is primitive, but not so in larger cities, where apartments rent for $150 to $190 a month or more; where apartments are more roomy and comfortable than in U. S. The latest have underground parking lots and garages.

A TELEPHONE costs $6 a month, extension $1.20. Because there is a waiting list of 40,000 that the English company is unable to serve, a new company is being formed. Private homes are expected to buy $90 worth of stock in the new organization, $180 by business firms.

Water projects are numerous. A 40,000 gallon reservoir would not last the citizens of Arlington Heights very long, but it does provide safe drinking for thousands of residents of inland areas.

Under government operation hydrants are so located about small cities or villages the public can carry their drinking water to their homes.

The government in its present budget contributes 90% of the funds to create water supply for 113 towns. Deep wells are used. The above 40,000 gallon tank serves a city of 6,000 people.

VENEZUELA inaugurated in 1951 the first phase of a federal school building program. The government is providing schools independent of those furnished by municipal and state authority. While attention is mainly directed to primary schools, it is the aim of the government to furnish high school and college education free to all who qualify. Those entering trades will be given instruction in those trades during their school years.

Cities down here claim they have some super marts that are more super than those found in the States. They are well stocked with canned goods from up north.

Transportation is low; 3½c a ride; 7½c to suburbs and 15c to nearby towns. Cab fare is 90c within city.

A U. S. citizen who comes to Venezuela must pay income tax to his own government and to Venezuela the first year; afterwards only to Venezuela.

VENEZUELA is profiting by the experience of the United States in reference to undesirable citizens, such as Communists and labor agitators from other countries. The president is empowered to suspend constitutional guarantees, cause the arrest and expel those regarded harmful. In the United States such a foreigner engages in years of court action. The Venezuelean method may be a little on the dictatorial side but it keeps out unrest.

The oil companies pay such high wages the laboring man considers it a privilege to work for them. The company in turn observes every labor law and contract it makes.

There are no sit-down strikes or interruptions. The government invites foreign capital. A trade union building under construction includes libraries, swimming pool, restaurants.

Venezuela has so much gold that pins and earrings are made of 18 karat and pearls.

We discovered Caracas, the capital of Venezuela, was 45 miles inland over a lot of mountains that required traveling in circles the entire distance.

It was worth it. We discovered the real Venezueleans were almost a different race from the Dominicans we met early this week and from the stevedores in Venezuela who reside in shanties perched on the sides of neighboring mountains.

THE VENEZUELEAN people who reside in the capital are clean, intellectual and give every possible honor to the patriots who brought about their freedom from Spain in 1921.

Of course the capital has a George Washington statue. Its original constitution, an exact copy of the United States written by Henry Clay, with other important documents, rests in a strong box in the hall of congress.

The capital was located over the mountains in order to discourage the pirates who formerly roamed the Caribbean.

THE CAPITAL has hundreds of large 5 to 8 story modern buildings under construction. The hotel, where we had luncheon today, is the last word in elegance. Private homes do not have large lawns but they are beautiful.

The country has so much gold and oil that prices are very high. There are thousands of cars, and only an occasional stop light; many one-way streets. A super highway through mountains for use solely of passenger cars is under construction.

The city does not know the meaning of outdoor theatres, parking meters or parking lots.

Next week's installment will cover the operation of a democratic form of government by dictators and its effect on the laboring man and business.

Parade to Launch Memorial Day Exercises at Arlington

Step-Off At 9:30; Memorial Park Services At 10:15 A. M.

A parade and special services at Memorial Park will mark Memorial day in Arlington Heights. The parade, according to parade chairman C. L. Griffith of the American Legion, Merle Guild Post 208, will assemble at the South school grounds at 9 a.m., with the step-off promptly at 9:30 a.m.

Line of march will be east on South st. to Dunton ave., north on Dunton ave. to Euclid, west on Euclid to Walnut, south on Walnut to Fremont st., east on Fremont to Memorial Park.

SERVICES AT Memorial Park will begin at 10:15 a.m., with Rev. Birger Dahl of the First Methodist church, giving the invocation and benediction. The high school band will then accompany the entire assembly during the singing of "America."

Dwight D. Guilfoil Jr., Legion commander, will read General Logan's Order No. 11, which will be followed by the address of the day. The speaker's name has not been announced at this writing.

Honor Roll Call will be made by Harold Luettschwager, commander of the VFW Post 981. Wreaths will then be placed on the three monuments by the president of the American Legion auxiliary, president of the VFW auxiliary, and the sergeant at arms of the Legion auxiliary.

A salute to the honored dead will be made by the combined firing squads of the Legion and VFW posts. Dennis Malcolmson is commander of the Legion firing suadq and Roy Beese is commander of the VFW color guard.

PRIOR TO THE benediction taps will be played and the "Star Spangled Banner" will be sung by the assembly, with the high school band playing the accompaniment.

Groups planning to march in the parade include: police escort; colors and color guards of the American Legion and VFW and their auxiliaries; post and auxiliary flags of both units; firing squads of both units; commanders and auxiliary presidents of both units; Legion and VFW members; Legion and VFW auxiliary members; National Guard; high school band; village officials; fire department and auxillary; Lions club; Kiwanis club; Chamber of Commerce; boy scouts; girl scouts; cub packs; and school children.

Immediately following the service at Memorial Park the group will proceed to the cemetery to decorate graves of World War veterans.

Palatine Cop Nabs Fleeing State Convict

Because an escapee from the Sheridan State reformatory needed a pair of pants if he was to maintain his freedom, his flight from prison the previous day ended in Palatine early Friday morning when a bullet from the gun of Palatine police officer Dinse came so near the escapee's head that he gave himself up.

Officer Dinse became suspicious when he saw a truck being driven after midnight on a number of residential streets in Palanois Park. When the truck turned down the Northwest hwy., Dinse decided to investigate, and turned on his light and siren. When the driver of the truck speeded up the officer fired three shots, one of which went through the windshield near the driver's head. The driver was taken to Palatine jail where he confessed.

His pants had been badly torn when he and another companion went over the barbed wire prison fence. His apprehension in Palatine was indirectly brought about by an accident with a car owned and driven by Nels A. Johnson of the Johnson Water Softener firm, Northwest hwy., Palatine.

Jerry Parker, sentenced from one year to life and Joseph Martini, in prison for auto theft, escaped Thursday from the reformatory by going over a fence. They first stole a car in Sheridan, driving it to Sandwich, Ill., where the boys separated. Parker stole a second car, but at the intersection of route 53 and Rand rd. hit the Johnson car, which was waiting for the light to change.

Instead of waiting the arrival of police, Parker disappeared in the fields. Both county and state police failed to find him.

Near midnight the escapee made his way to the Knupper Nursery where he drove off with the truck, coming to Palatine. He was apparently looking for a likely place where he could find some clothes. The only other garment he was wearing besides tattered pants was a jacket taken from the stolen car.

The prisoner was taken to the Morton Grove police station where he was picked up by officers from Sheridan.

Contribute Now To Channel 11 Television Fund

Today (Thursday) and tomorrow brings the climax to the Arlington Heights drive for Channel 11, the proposed television station to be devoted to educational purposes.

SCHOOL CHILDREN took literature home to their parents Wednesday and adults, in turn, were invited to send contributions back with the students Thursday and Friday. Representatives of the PTA and Arlington Heights Woman's club are on hand to receive the money.

Those who have no children in the schools and who wish to contribute may do so by sending checks to Arlington Heights Chapter Channel 11, Arlington Heights. Checks should be made out to the Channel 11 Fund committee.

Unless the money needed to equip and operate Channel 11 for the first two years is raised by next Tuesday, the Federal Communications commission will permit commercial sponsors to apply for the channel.

CHANNEL 11 is to be operated by the educational institutions of the Chicago area—colleges, museums, boards of education, etc. After the initial funds are obtained, it is probable that the sponsoring institutions will be able to maintain the station. Should the required funds—$1,100,000 not be raised, all contributions will be returned.

Local chairmen of the Channel 11 committee are Mrs. N. T. Burfeind, retiring president of the PTA, and Bruno Waara, president of the Arlington Area Educators Council.

What pattern, what style, what color will look best on who, is being discussed by three young ladies who will appear in the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce Minstrel show, "It's In The Bag," to be presented June 17-18 at the high school. All the girls' costumes will be made from cotton feed bags, one of which is displayed in the picture and was obtained from the Arlington Roller Mills. The accordionist is Bunny Schweigert; Viola Schweiger, center, will appear in the chorus, and Willie Ballard, right, will present a pantomime. —Folkman Photo.

Practical Jokers at Work in Arlington; Police Checking Suspects

The Arlington Heights fire department and taxi cab company have been victims of practical jokers the past week, the results of which has cost the taxpayers, as well as the taxi company, considerable money.

The fire department received a call Friday telling them a house at a certain address was burning to the ground. At the same time the taxi company received a call that a man at that address wanted a cab to take him to Barrington.

Firemen and cab arrived almost simultaneously and pounded on the door of the home, the fire chief asking where the fire was and the cabbie calling for his fare. The unsuspecting housewife could not explain who had called or why.

The cab company has had numerous other calls to pick up fares only to find upon arrival at the given address no one had called.

The police are now checking on a few persons suspected of placing these anonymous calls and when arrested they will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

Persons playing practical jokes are tampering with the safety and welfare of the community when they call out the fire department on false alarms, and every effort will be made to bring the guilty person or persons to justice.

Season Swim Tickets Now Available; on Sale Until June 13

Registration for swimming classes at the Arlington Heights pool opened Monday at which time the season swimming tickets were also placed on sale. Residents may purchase season tickets daily, Monday through Friday, from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon, and from 1 to 5 p.m., at the field house. These hours will continue until June 13.

After June 13 season tickets may still be purchased but they must be obtained from the concession stand in the field house.

All youngsters buying season tickets are eligible for free swimming lessons. The pool is scheduled to open June 13, with swimming classes set to begin June 18.

Super-Modern Readers' Choice Home To Open Doors Aug. 26

Curious persons by the thousands will get their chance to walk inside the newly constructed super-modern home on Arlington's far south side August 26.

That was the announcement made this week by builder Bill Trude, number one man in "Trudeville" who has constructed more than 300 homes, mostly ranch style, on Arlington's south side.

The H-shaped, basementless home sponsored by Better Homes & Garden magazine will be the subject of the entire September issue and is due to be open to the public August 26. Just how many thousands of Chicago area residents will go through the house is unknown, though estimates run as high as 100,000.

READER'S CHOICE Five Star home is the proper name for the home, the result of thousands of hours of panel discussions and conferences among readers, architects, realtors and builders. Object of the magazine was to incorporate what home buyers wish today.

Fifty-two homes exactly like the one at Chestnut and Orchard, Arlington Heights, are being built for August showing across the country. The Heights house is the only one in the Chicago area and has been photographed for picture purposes.

QUICK RUNDOWN on some of the features:

Square footage 1700, driftwood finish on the outside.

Entire inside of the "H" Twindow insulated glass, including four sections of the breezeway which slide open for summer breezes.

Butterfly roof, "black cement" floors.

Gas perimeter heating of edges of floors and walls.

Picket fences to give privacy, dome skylight for the bathroom in the middle of one half of the house.

ALL FEATURES are certain to be discussed in full in the magazine, come August 26, with an extra door to be inserted in the back to expedite the tours expected for several weeks starting the end of August.

Furnishings and final touches still have to be inserted in the home. That corner at Orchard and Chestnut, just north of Kirchhoff road, Arlington Heights, has been a busy one these past few week ends, but the doors of the home will not be open to the public until August.

Band-Chorus Concert Friday At South School

The Arlington Heights public school band, in conjunction with the Junior high school chorus, will present an outdoor instrumental and vocal concert Friday evening, May 29, at 7:30 p.m. on the playground adjoining the Junior High school gymnasium.

The band, under the direction of Harold Brunt, will play ten numbers, with solos by Richard Duenn, Bob Lenz, Jerry Campbell, and Jeff Heintz, in addition to other instrumental groupings.

The chorus will sing the three numbers chosen by Mrs. Patricia Skarr, their director. There will be no admission charge to the outdoor concert, and it is hoped that a good many people will take advantage of this opportunity to hear the band and the chorus.

In THE EVENT of inclement weather, the concert will be held in the Junior high school gymnasium at the same hour.

The band will play the following numbers: "Chief Tomahawk," "Largo," "Junior Prom," "Beautiful Ohio," "Hap, Hap, Happy Day," "Under Double Eagle," "Masquerade," "Star Spangled Banner," "Sunset Memories" and "Vienna Life." Clarinet quintette, "Rainbow Scene," will be played by Roberta Boyd, Marilyn Skach, Sue Curry, Patty Mills, and Janet Lunsmann; violin duet, "Swinging," by Charles and John Ninnemann; clarinet duet, "Prairie Warbler," by Tom Jacobsen and Ashley Haase; trumpet solo, "Lake of Bays," by Jerry Campbell; clarinet solo, "In the Lovely Month of May," by Jeff Heintz; clarinet solo, "Solo Semplice," by Richard Duenn. drum solo, "Little Sue," by Robert Lenz, and clarinet solo, "Valse Grazioso" by Patty Mills.

Drives on Wrong Side of Highway, Causes Accident

Joe Shine, Arlington Heights, was booked for driving on the wrong side of the street and causing an accident Saturday morning on Northwest hwy., between Pine and Belmont aves.

Shine, headed west on Northwest hwy., went over the center line and struck the ice truck of Arthur Gieseke, also of Arlington Heights, who was traveling east on the highway.

Bloodhound Finds Girl

A missing Palatine township girl, Barbara Veneske, 8, who resides on Rand rd., was found last week Thursday asleep in a shack by a bloodhound who had been set on her trail.

Barbara left Wednesday to visit neighbors after she had been scolded by her father, Anton Veneske She apparently got lost on the way home.

Police Find Motorist Riding Tracks In Search Of Crossroad

Mt. Prospect police thought they were seeing double, when they spotted two headlights moving west along the railroad tracks at 3 a.m. the morning of May 16.

Upon investigation, they found Thomas P. Lisle, of Milwaukee, driving along the tracks hoping to find a cross road. He had taken a wrong turn off Central rd.

A tow truck had to be called to lift the car back to the road.

Aecital

The piano pupils of Ethel Wilson Currier will present a recital at 2 p.m. June 7 at the field house. The public is invited to attend. There will be no admission charge.

Washington Trip

As spelling bee winner and representative of the Cook county suburban and parochial schools, Pat Nolan, 12, and her mother, Mrs. Charles Nolan, have just returned from a week's trip to Washington, D. C. They stayed at the Willard hotel, which was headquarters for contestants from all over the country. Just a few of the highlights of this exciting trip for Pat and her mother included planned tours in which they were able to see all the important buildings and landmarks in the beautiful city of Washington. They were able to visit the Senate and the House of Representatives in session and Pat had the honor of having her picture taken with Senators Douglas and Dirksen of Illinois. They were invited as luncheon guests at the House of Representatives dining room by Illinois State representative, Margaret Stitt Church. Another thrill for Pat was to speak and shake hands with Vice President Richard Nixon, who teasingly called Pat and Betty Bliss, Chicago schools winner, "Spelling Queens." Pat did very well in the finals and spelled down 32 contestants out of 53. The awards were given at the victory banquet Friday night and Pat received $50 and a lovely engraved sterling silver charm bracelet. Besides these cherished momentos, Pat and her mother have some exciting memories of a wonderful trip never to be forgotten.

Neighborhood Doings

Friday Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ackerlund drove his mother, Mrs. Mary Ackerlund, to her home in Eau Claire, Wis., where they spent the week-end and returned home Sunday.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Busch Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. John Hope and their children, Camille, Joseph and Thomas of Memphis, Tenn. Mr. and Mrs. Hope and Mr. and Mrs. Busch were classmates at the University of Illinois. Mr. Hope is a meterologist with the U. S. Weather Bureau in Memphis.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Goehe were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bethel of Collinsville, Ill. Mr. Bethel was here to participate as a contestant in the ABC bowling tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Gooding Sr., Elkhart, Ind., have just returned from a trip to the west coast and are spending a few days at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Gooding Jr. They will also visit their daughter in Mount Prospect, Mrs. James Strong.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Garasha were Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Schroeder of Chicago.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. John Huskey were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hefty of Chicago, in celebration of their wedding anniversary. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Donald Belleux and Mr. and Mrs. Barney Fialk.

Birthdays

Billy Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Warren, celebrated his seventh birthday Tuesday afternoon. Those present at his party were Bobby Schuldt, Larry Berlinski, Allan Hubbard, Joe Morici, Jack Trendel, Dennis Buren, Tim and Tom Garasha and his sisters, Ann and Jane.

Bobby Von Boeckmann's sixth birthday was the occasion for a picnic party in his back yard for all his friends Saturday afternoon.

Always Crabbing

Long List Of Workers Raise $3,700 In Heights For Cancer

Total amount raised in the Arlington Heights cancer fund drive, according to chairman George Glow, is $3,706.48. This included $70 turned in to the Chicago office of the cancer society and credited to the Heights drive.

Mr. Glow is this week releasing names of all workers, with the reminder that any would-be donors who were missed can still turn in their donations to Arthur H. Franzen, treasurer of the fund in Arlington Heights at the National bank.

A fairly complete list of workers includes:

Mrs. William Bott, J. B. Gable, Mrs. Joe Muran, Mrs. R. D. Benson, Mrs. W. H. Spomer, Mrs. R. W. Gair, Mrs. W. L. Weismuller, Mrs. F. L. Travis, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. J. C. Kent, Mrs. A. C. Peters.

Mrs. James B. Henderson, Mrs. W. W. Ashley, Mrs. A. Basil, Mrs. O. C. Beattie, Mrs. G. Carr, Mrs. L. Dix, Mrs. L. Hahn, Mrs. H. R. Jacobsen, Mrs. Geo. Jirgal, Mrs. S. Olson, Mrs. B. Phillips, Mrs. R. THE COUNSELING PROGRAM

By Marian Hamilton, Visiting Counselor

Part II

There are various ways of helping children who have social or emotional problems. If they have confidence in the counselor and can express themselves with a fair amount of ease, they sometimes just like to sit and talk. Others who can't express themselves so readily or who aren't quite ready to see that there are trouble areas, may need to use play of some sort as a substitute for talking.

There is a highly specialized method of child treatment used by psychiatrists and psychologists called play therapy in which the therapist is able by this means to discover the inner conflicts and the unconscious motivations of the child. The play of the neurotic child differs from that of the normal child in many ways. To the trained child therapist his play may indicate both type and extent of his mental illness. A truly neurotic child should be under the care of a trained therapist. However, there is no reason why the teacher, the school counselor, or the parent should not make use of play for helping the child on conscious levels.

IN FACT WE ADULTS use play or recreation quite consciously to meet many of our needs—not only to give us respite from our tasks and worries as a rejuvenating and healing process but also as a means of working off some of our hostilities. Where, for example, is there a better place than the golf course for working off a peeve at the boss?

"Breathes there the man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself has said,
This golf ball is the boss'
head!"

In the counseling program we use play for various purposes. One is to put the child at ease and facilitate the getting acquainted process. Gradually it serves as an ice breaker for talk. Another use is as a safety valve. Every child is hemmed in by a host of social and moral inhibitions which cause feelings of frustration. If there is a chance to let steam escape legitimately he can take these in his stride and proceed to more constructive activities.

If there is no such chance, his resentments to frustration may get buried deep inside where he does something about them symbolically, in a way that he considers safer, or he may displace them onto another person, whom he dares to defy. Anger is a normal reaction to frustration. If the child can learn to take his anger out in a harmless way such as by demolishing a fort he has built of blocks or logs, rebuilding, and resmashing it until his emotions have spent themselves, he won't be so apt to feel the need of initiating an unprovoked attack on his pal next door. Moreover, he has learned the essential lesson of channeling his feelings into more acceptable ways of behaving. Channeling anger into constructive and positive activities comes later, with greater maturity—if at all! Let's not expect to skip steps and demand an adult goal early in childhood.

PLAY CAN ALSO be used to create dramatic situations for relieving feelings and for leading to discussion of how people feel in such situations—how they are apt to act. These discussions may gradually effect changes of attitude. It is sometimes easier to talk about a dramatization we have created, a supposedly fictitious thing, than it is to talk about our deepest feelings as applied to us. It is easier to see the errors of an imaginary character.

When a child needs help he needs help not from any one person alone, but from all of us working together—from the parent, the teacher, the counselor, the scout leader, the church, etc. There seems to be a sensing by the child when all are working together. It is a normal human desire to want to be part of the game and this may bring the child to the spot where he wants to get in and pitch too.

Fosest View District To Vote on Increased Educational Tax Rate

Residents of the Forest View School District 56 will vote in a special election June 6 on a proposition to increase the educational tax rate of the district.

The school, which is located on S. State rd., between Rt. 58 (Golf rd.) and Rt. 62 (Algonquin rd.), operates on a .61 per cent basis at present, which means the maximum extendable taxes is approximately $10,458.40. The proposed increase is .82 per cent, which would mean the maximum extendable taxes would be increased to approximately $14,058.82.

A new two room addition to the school will be erected this summer. Due to lack of funds the school has not been able to keep pace with modern developments in education and the present facilities are even lacking some of the necessities to provide a good education for the youngsters.

The school must also provide facilities for 86 youngsters residing in the Arlington Airport area, since it is located within the bounds of the school district.

The polling place is at the Forest View school and polls will be open from 12 noon until 7 p. m. (AC

Public Hearing on Elk Grove Township Rezoning June 12

A public hearing will be held by the Cook County zoning board of appeals June 12 at 7 p. m., in the Mount Prospect village hall.

The hearing is on a petition for an amendment to the zoning ordinance of Cook county. The property involved consists of approximately one acre, located on the west side of Arlington Heights rd., approximately 100 feet north of White Oak ave., in Elk Grove township.

The amendment, as proposed, seeks to rezone the above legally described property from its present classification as the R-4 residence 10,000 sq. ft.) district to the B-2 (business, tavern and amusement) district.

All persons interested should attend and they will be given an opportunity to be heard.

Invite Mothers Of Brownies-to-be To Special Meet

Mothers living on the south side of Arlington Heights, who have daughters in the first grade who are interested in becoming Brownies, are invited to a special meeting Friday. To be eligible girls must be 7 years old and in second grade next fall.

South school mothers will meet from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. in the Junior high school cafeteria.

Dryden Place mothers will meet from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room at Dryden school.

Mrs. Andrew E. Helwig, neighborhood chairman, will explain the objectives of girl scouting at this program-level, and will assist in the organization of new second grade brownie scout troops to be invested next fall.

Wins $3,000 Scholarship To Case Institute In Cleveland, Ohio

George Laubenheimer, son of George W. Laubenheimer, Mt. Prospect, was recently awarded one of four Case Institutes of Technology Honor Scholarships.

The institute is located in Cleveland, Ohio. This is a four-year full tuition award, with a total value of $3,000.

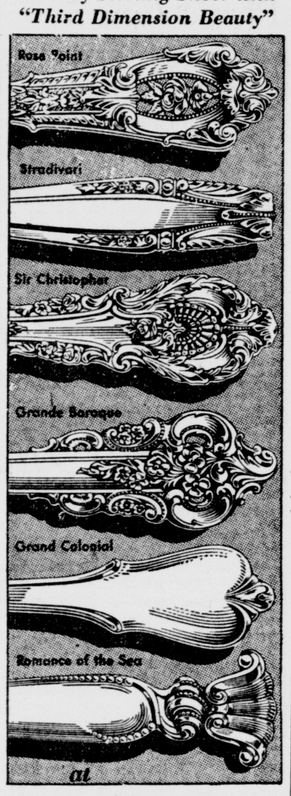

The award is made on the basis of outstanding scholarship and leadership record. In order to retain it, the recipient must remain in the top twenty-five per cent of his class scholastically.

George is one of the two who tied for salutatorian honors in this year's graduating class at Arlington Heights high school. This is his second scholarship award this year: Northwestern university has offered a scholarship of comparable value.

Pick County Winners In State Fair Flag Designs Of High School Artists

A design by Paula Warshawsky, 2624 W. Summerdale, Chicago, 25, was judged best of those entered by Cook county high school students in Governor William G. Stratton's contest for an Illinois State Fair flag plan in judging conducted in the office of Noble Puffer, Cook county superintendent of schools, Friday.

Others members of the judging panel were Stuart Paddock Jr., Arlington Heights Herald, and Carl Mees, Cook county farm advisor. The winning design from Cook county will be entered in final competition with winners from various downstate counties in statewide judging to be held next month.

The student whose design is winner of the state contest will receive a $500 U.S. defense bond from Governor Stratton at the opening of the Illinois State Fair in Springfield on August 14. The design will be made into an Illinois State Fair flag to be unfurled at that time.

Because there were so many good designs entered by Cook county students the judging committee decided to select second and third place winners. They went to Gordon Stromberg, Lakeview High school, 3248 North Wolcott ave., and Petras K. Bagdonas, St. Ignatius High school, 1932 South Union ave., Chicago.

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

"It is imperative that the democratic spirit be developed at the heart of the cities because life must have a reason for being. People need a sense of belonging. This may be one of the greatest human needs." Saul Alinsky was speaking. Growing out of his experiences in the development of the Back of the Yards Community Council, and the work of the Area Project Foundation, he was trying to help some churchmen understand the problem of changes within the urban community.

To understand the problem of urban change we must face it in its nakedness: today, it is a question of color. The deterioration of neighborhoods, the effort to arrest blight, is bound in with the question of Negro-white relations. Blight does not logically follow upon the color of the residents' skin; blight follows overcrowding. Overcrowding is the result of economic and emotional forces.

THE FIRST NEGRO in the white district causes a panic; the full-scale effort to move out begins overnight. Sharp real estate operators pick houses up at a loss—because the owners are panicked. But they make a killing when they resell. The result is that it becomes necessary to make immediate conversions, to double up, to meet the payments. And the pressure for housing within the segregated district is so intense that everyone wants to get out. This has happened within range of many of us, at some time or another; it has happened, and is still happening, in every large city in the country. In some places, the whites have moved to the suburbs of the suburbs.

But what can churches do to prevent this panic situation? Some of them, knowing what is coming, have stopped maintaining the building for several years; finally they move the church, selling the building at an inflated price to a Negro congregation. This is a non-moral answer from the guardian of the public morals.

It is, indeed, the practical answer which creates the moral dilemma. Said Alinsky, "If you folks just believed your own stuff even a little bit, it would take you through, without any need for technicians or experts."

He described a survey in which not a single responsible person in great areas of tension felt that there would be much excitement if people could only be sure that there would not be more than one or two Negro families in a block. But they were intensely afraid of things happening over night. But none of them believed the panic could be stopped. In part, it cannot be stopped because many of us still endeavor to deal with race relations on a rational basis; we think people can be brought to understand the "right" of the situation. Well, they cannot be convinced.

FATHER PAUL had a parishioner in Packing Town who had "blown off steam" about working with Negroes. But a few weeks later when Father Paul asked Ed how he might go about dealing with a mythical person who was quite prejudicial in his statements, Ed responded to the Father in his role of faithful churchman; Father Paul went on to schedule him for a meeting in which he spoke as the faithful churchman, trying to help that prejudiced mythical brother understand that he was mistaken. Father Paul knew that Ed was the one man most likely to stampede the group into undesirable behavior.

The problems of culture and group relations are not going to be met by any single group working all by itself. They will be met when we all start belonging to the team which is the human race.

W. R. Etherton to Teach At Barat College Branch

W. R. Etherton, 2022 Center st., Northbrook, has accepted an invitation of the board of trustees of Barat college to teach in their summer session and also to teach late afternoon classes during the academic school year. This summer, July 27 to August 7, Mr. Etherton will teach a course in "Elementary school guidance."

Barat college, located in Lake Forest, is establishing a branch for graduate students at 6250 Sheridan rd. to help prepare young people for the teaching profession and to provide courses which will enable present teachers to keep their certificates up to date. Mr. Etherton will be teaching in this graduate school. He was selected for this position because of his ability to give practical help and suggestions to classroom teachers.

Mr. Etherton is assisfant county superintendent of schools in Cook county in charge of Personnel and Placement for the whole county, and supervisor of Division Two (Evanston, New Trier, Niles and Northfield townships). Before entering the county office he taught for twenty-one years in public schools of Northbrook where he was principal of the high school from 1943 to 1951. He received the B.E. degree from Southern Illinois university, the M.A. degree from Northwestern university, and has completed a year's work above the Master's degree in guidance from Northwestern and the University of Wyoming.

Teaching at Barat college will not interfere with Mr. Etherton's work in the county office, but will give him an opportunity to help in the program of preparing people to meet the ever increasing need for elementary school teachers.

Up and Doing 4-H Club

The eighth meeting of the Up and Doing 4-H club of Elk Grove was held at the home of Patty Busse May 19.

Recently, nine girls from the club visited the "Man on the Farm" program in Libertyville. They talked about 4-H work and the club. This program will be broadcast on station WGN at 12 noon any Saturday in the near future.

The group will hold its annual bake sale May 27 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Edwin Deeke. The public is invited

At the meeting Diane Deeke told how to sew pleats on her dress and Harriet Moellenkamp talked on the different types of dress for different occasions. Judy Moehling gave a demonstration on hermits: Sandy Busse gave a talk on cookies. Sandy Moehling demonstrated a flower arrangement. Patty Busse showed the girls how to make eggnog

The minor for the meeting was music. Laurnell Andersen gave a talk on music and Patty Busse played a song on the piano.

The meeting was closed with recereation and refreshments.

The club held two tours recently; one at Penny's clothing store, and the other at Singer Sewing Company. (ACM

Junior Prom At Edgewater Beach May 29

The Grand Ballroom of the Edgewater Beach hotel will be the scene of this year's Junior Prom for students of Arlington Heights high school, May 29, from 9 to 12 p. m.

Jack Cavan and his band will play for the dance. This is the popular band which plays for many of the events which are presented at the hotel.

THE DANCE will be formal for girls, and many boys will wear formal clothing, although it is not required.

Tickets are being distributed to juniors and seniors this week. The junior class provides tickets for all upperclassmen. Freshmen and sophomores are encouraged to attend the dance, but must purchase tickets. The price is $4 per couple.

Punch and cookies will be served by the staff of the hotel.

IN RECENT YEARS the prom has been held at Medinah Country Club, but a move was necessary this year because of the increased attendance. More than 400 students are expected to attend.

Parents of a number of students have indicated that they are planning after-dance breakfast parties in their homes. Other students will scatter throughout Chicagoland for restaurant parties.

Barber Shoppers Induct New Officers Monday

O. C. Cash, the founder of S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A., Inc., now residing in Tulsa, Oklahoma, was unable to attend the installation of new Arlington Heights Barber Shop Quartet officers Monday night, at the field house. The chairman of the committee conducted the ceremony by special proxy.

The exercises were simple but solemn and the gentlemen who have accepted the responsibility of the continued success of the Arlington Heights Chapter are Stan Myers, president; Carl Scneske, vice president; Chuck Jevne, secretary, and Bob Isaacson, treasurer. Dan Krebsbach, as delegate, will represent the chapter at out-of-town meetings.

All members are requested to be at the next rehearsal June 1. Plans for the summer will be announced as well as the annual show next fall.

Editor of National Forensic Publication

Lawrence Jenness, instructor of speech and debate at Arlington high school, has been appointed editor of "The Rostrum," monthly publication of the National Forensic League. The appointment was announced by Bruno Jacob, executive secretary of the N. F. L.

Jenness is a graduate of the University of Maine and has an M. A. from Northwestern. His duties, which will commence in September, will be on a spare time basis in addition to his regular teaching.

The National Forensic League is an organization of high school students and teachers interested in public speaking and debate. The league sponsors contests and other activities for its members, which are located in all of the 48 states and territories. The Arlington chapter was established in 1952.

Completes 40 Years With Public Service

Martin H. Schreiber, 321 Hillside ave., Barrington, district superintendent for the local area for the Public Service company for many years, will celebrate his fortieth anniversary with the utility Tuesday, June 2.

Schreiber began his utility career in 1913 in Bradford with the Stark county Power and Electric company which later became part of the Public Service company. He served in the army during World War I and upon his return worked in the company's Chillicothe area. He transferred to Barrington in 1925 as local superintendent and became district superintendent in 1933.

Schreiber is vice president of the First Federal Savings and Loan of which he served previously as president, and also as director for 16 years. He is a charter member and past president of the Barrington Lions club and has been active in the state Lions club organization, serving a term as district governor. A member of the Barrington chamber of commerce, Schreiber is active in American Legion affairs, serving as post commander two years.

TV NEWS

by Don Hager

The growth of television continues its rapid pace. Already some 60 new stations have gone on the air since the FCC lifted its "freeze" order. And it seems only a few short months ago that the first post-freeze station, in Portland, Oregon, beamed out its first signal.

Another note of TV progress: during the first quarter of this year the production of TV sets was almost doubled the total made in the first quarter of 1952. Over 2¼ million receivers were turned out in January, February and March this year. The forecast is that over 9,000,000 sets will be made in 1953 . . . the highest total in video history!

However, predictions that we will have color TV by Christmas are over-optimistic. Indications are it will be approved by then. Production is another story. David Sarnoff, RCA board chairman, whose "compatible" system for color TV has won over Congressional committees who've seen it, estimates that it will take from 9 to 12 months to tool up for color set production. His timetable calls for full production by January 1, 1955, presuming that his system is approved by FCC after its hearings. If your TV picture is getting dimmer and isn't meeting with your approval these days, call us for qualified tube testing. Our technicians will find what's really wrong at DON HAGER'S TV & APPLIANCE, 11 W. Davis St., Arlington Heights. Phone CLearbrook 3-0700.

Official Hoover Vacuum Cleaner SERVICE

CALL TODAY FOR SERVICE

If the old cleaner just can't do it, consider a New Hoover. We guarantee you will be satisfied and your home will be neat and clean. Remember, Hoover has been around a long time, and many still do a fine job after 25 years. Check that fact against some fancy high pressure claims you read or hear about on TV.

Suction alone can't get rug-dirt out

It takes 2 other cleaning actions plus suction to keep your rugs fresh and bright...free of germs...free of moths...and to protect rug life. You get all three in the Triple-Action Hoover.

If you are working harder than your old cleaner, give your rugs and yourself a fresh start with a new Triple-Action Hoover. Remember that suction alone can get only the surface litter. Hoover gets up the dirt that hurts . . . cleans the full depth of the rug pile and prolongs rug life.

Come see the great new Hoovers now. Available for as little as $66.95 Low down payment, easy extended terms.

Rehearsals For Chamber Minstrel Show, June 17-18, In Full Swing

The walls of the Arlington Heights high school auditorium will resound with music, singing and dancing galore at the minstrel show, "It's In The Bag," being sporsored by the chamber of commerce June 17 and 18.

THE TITLE is very apropos inasmuch as all the girls' costumes will be made from cotton feed bags, which are being furnished through the courtesy of the Textile Bag Manufacturers Association, Evanston. This year approximately 125,000,000 dress print bags will be used to package such farm products as feed, fertilizer, and flour.

For many years Textile Bag association has been carrying on a program to inform rural and city women of the many advantages of buying commodities contained in cotton bags. The minstrel show to be produced in Arlington Heights marks an innovation in the association's nationwide educational program. It is believed that a humorous presentation of the thrift and beauty features of cotton bag sewing will attract large numbers of people who heretofore have not realized the advantages of the emptied cotton feed, flour or fertilizer bag.

"Talent appearing in the show will be local and from out of town," said James D. Goggin, promotional director of Textile Bag, who is directing the show. Rehearsals are now in progress.

AMONG THE highlights will be Ty Nagle (Joe Tinaglia, owner of Sieburg Drug), who will serve as interlocuter. Ty Nagle is Joe's professional name, and two of the songs Ty has written and which were recently published, will be sung by him during the show. The songs, "Cross the Mason-Dixon Line" and "So Lonely," are now available on 78 and 45 speed records, which appear under the Canyon label, Ty's own record company.

TY NAGLE

Other features will be Dick Everett and his band furnishing the background music as well as presenting several special numbers, and dancers from the Delores Eiler School of Dancing. Additional talent is still needed and anyone who has an "act" is urged to call James Hauff, Chamber of Commerce secretary, at CLearbrook 3-1703.

The theme of the show centers around Parson Brown and his congregation who are trying to raise money to save their church, which is mortgaged "to the hilt." How this is accomplished will be seen as the show progresses.

Posters will be placed in various store windows throughout the village telling where tickets may be purchased. Watch the next two issues for further details.

Glenn L. Pierre, 602 South Vail, Arlington Heights, has been appointed chairman of the local committee of the University of Chicago alumni foundation campaign for the 1953 alumni gift to the 61-year-old university.

A goal of $325,000 for 1953 has been set.

Girl Scout News

Brownie troop 27 of Arlington Heights held a cook-out at Elk Grove May 23. The group left at 10 a.m. and made their lunch out-of-doors. The 14 girls were accompanied by Mrs. Samuel Witt, their leader, Mrs. Peter Toffoli, co-leader, and two other mothers, Mrs. Carl Grey and Mrs. Tod Wake.

The northwest neighborhood group is carrying on a girl scout uniform exchange for both girls and adults. Those interested are asked to call Mrs. R. O. Damerow, CL 3-5320.

Brownie troop 2 of the south side entertained troop 8 at a get-together party May 22 at Dryden place school. There were refreshments, songs and games.

Those present were Judy Boehner, Nancy and Susan Brant, Susan Carlisle, Daryl Down, Janet Helwig, Jo Anne Jahnke, Kitty Montgomery, Janet Phillips, Jane Ann Ed, Jeanne Koops, Eyvette and Eyvonne Larkin, Julia Rolunson, Patty Swanson, Joyce Whitton and Jayne Whittenberg.

The leaders are Mrs. Joseph Brant, Mrs. A. E. Helwig and Mrs. E. J. Koops.

Brownie troop 8 held a farewell party May 26 for Jane Ann Ed, a member of the troop, who is moving to Indianapolis, Ind. Jane Ann received many handkerchiefs from troop members.

Fire Destroys Trailer And Kills Infant Son

A two-year-old child was fatally burned in a house trailer blaze on East Rockland rd., Libertyville last week.

John Jensen, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jensen, was asleep in his crib when the fire broke out. His mother was a block away at the home of her father-in-law, Jens Jensen.

Mrs. Jensen said she had left the house only 20 minutes before to do her washing.

Libertyville firemen fought valiantly to save the child, but the home was a blazing inferno by the time they arrived.

Only other occupant of the trailer at the time of the fire was a small dog, who escaped through the flaming doorway. The dog received slight singe marks on its back.

CIRCLING THE TOWN

BY PHYLLIS KNIGHT

The circus is coming to town—for a one-day, two-performance stand next Monday. Arlington Kiwanis club is sponsoring the show put on by Hagen brothers.

The circus site is Foundry rd., near Northwest hwy. and Hickory. Two performances, afternoon and evening, are on the schedule, with prices at 60 cents for children and $1.30 for adults, with reserved seats costing 60 cents extra.

Hagen brothers operate in three rings with all the trimmings of the traditional circus — clown, trapeze artists and animal acts are all, of course, on the program.

Tickets may be purchased from local business places and from any member of the Kiwanis club. Proceeds—if any—will be devoted by the Kiwanians to community projects.

Western Roundup

Western Roundup is the theme the Arlington Heights auxiliary of the Park Ridge school for girls have chosen for their first benefit project. Allison's woods (on Milwaukee ave. across from the Villa Venice) is the site. June 13 at 6:30 is the time.

Members of the auxiliary, with chairmen, Mrs. William Ball and Mrs. Douglas Smith, will greet their guests dressed in the western mood. Guests are invited to dress in casual fashion as well.

Cocktails, supper at 7:30, and dancing—both square and "round"—are included in the price, $7.50 per couple.

Tickets to the affair—limited to 400—are available from Mrs. Willard Nelson at CL 3-7350 or Mrs. Kemp Blackwell at CL 3-0737.

The Park Ridge School for Girls, to which these women are devoting their efforts and time, is a home and school for girls from broken homes, girls whose parents cannot take care of them in a way they should.

Educational TV

That television can be educational has already been demonstrated by a good number of programs — Omnibus, public events such as the inauguration and children's shows like Mr. Wizard and Ding Dong School.

Now people within the signal area of Chicago channels have an opportunity to make this kind of television a daily occurrence. They can do it by subscribing to the fund for channel 11 before next Tuesday.

School children of Arlington Heights took home literature about the proposed station and today, Thursday, and tomorrow contributions may be taken to school.

Mrs. N. T. Burfeind, retiring president of the PTA, and Bruno Waara, president of the Arlington Area Educators' council, are co-chairmen of the local drives.

Clever Clover 4-H Club

Clever Clover 4-H club of Arlington Heights met May 4 and 18 at 7 p.m. at the Wilson school. The group discussed plans for its bake sale which will be held May 23 at Palmer's Plumbing Store at 10 a.m.

They also made plans for their exhibit at the 4-H fair.

Demonstrations were given by Jill Hoffman, Marie Wallor and Donna Siemro. Airplane bunco and refreshments completed the evening.

At the May 18 meeting plans for the bake sale and the fair exhibit were again discussed. The fair will be held August 14-16.

The girls were also given instructions on how to judge garments for the County Achievement day. The group will meet again June 10.

Moving to Arlington

Elizabeth D. Wengler has resigned her position as supervisor of social recreation for the city of Denver, effective June 15, and will move to Arlington Heights. Her husband, W. T. Wengler, who is with the public relations department of the Chicago and North Western railroad as photographer, has been extensively remodeling the old Eric Anderson property at 1100 Kensington rd which he purchased, along with adjoining 7 acres, a year ago.

Mrs. Wengler, known professionally as Elizabeth Fowler, has been with the Denver recreation department since its origin in 1944. In a recent copy of the Denver Post J. Earl Schlupp, director of recreation for the "mile-high city" stated she was largely responsible for the development of successful municipal recreation programs in other cities, as well as in Denver, where her services as a consulting specialist have been made available. She has achieved an outstanding reputation in such fields as recreation for the aged, youth centers and canteens, square and folk dancing and other related activities.

Final Community Council Meeting Set for June 8

Arlington Heights Community Council will hold its final meeting of the year at the field house June 8, at 8 p.m.

Election of officers for the new year will be in the number one spot on the agenda. The nominating committee, appointed at the last meeting, is as follows: Dr. Robert Balfour, chairman, N. F. Hauff, George Hauff, Marguerite Tuttle and Dr. L. Linn.

Another highlight of the evening will be a talk on the proposed channel 11 educational TV station by a representative of the central committee in charge of promoting the channel. The public is invited to attend.

The Community Council has successfully completed several projects during the past year, but as the year ends they find many more still needing to be done. The council, which is made up of representatives from the various organizations in the village, can do a good job only if its members attend and work with it to promote the projects.

Retiring chairman, Don Hartman, says, "It has been delightful working with the council and I wish to thank the officers who did such an outstanding job in Community service. We have the ball rolling and I urge everyone to get behind the new officers for the coming year and keep it going."

Showing a $40 campership check to girls, who were the winners in the Girl Scout district poster contest sponsored by the Kiwanis club, is Leland Linn, president of the Arlington-Prospect Kiwanis club. Jerri Lynn Hardt of Skokie was the final winner, but she was not present because of illness. Others in the picture are: left to right, back row, Mrs. Bruce Corbett, public relations chairman, Prospect Heights; L. R. Turner, lieutenant governor of division 17 of the Kiwanis International, Waukegan; Miss Marion Hodgins, camp director of Hickory Hill, Des Plaines; Mrs. C. A. Genske, second vice-president, Park Ridge; front row, Norene Spalt of Des Plaines; Linda Hackbarth, Arlington Heights, and Patti Hanna, Park Ridge. The event took place at Rand Park in Des Plaines May 19, and the winner received the campership to Camp Hickory Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Plote of Ela rd., Palatine, celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary May 16 at a party given in their honor by their children. Mr. and Mrs. Plote, who have five children, all of whom are living at home, have been residents of Palatine all their married life. Out-of-town guests came from Woodstock, Marengo, Hampshire, Elgin, Bartlett, Roselle, Palatine and Arlington Heights.

Here's Scouting

IN ARLINGTON HEIGHTS AND PROSPECT HEIGHTS

BY JIM REDWANZ

ARROW CANDIDATES ANNOUNCED

The Order of the Arrow tapped out its prospective members at the recent Blackhawk District Camporee. The requirements for this honorary camping society are as follows: Must be 12½ years of age; must be of first class rank; must have had 15 days and nights camping out (only 7 of these may come from long term camps, such as Camp Napowan).

The basis of the arrow is cheerful service. The purpose of the arrow is the promotion of camping within the troop or post. To become a candidate, a scout or explorer must first be elected by his unit.

The candidates will go through the ordeal June 5, 6, 7, at Camp Dan Beard, near Wheeling.

Post 107, Gordon Gullicksen; Post 136, John Henningsen; Post 707, Jim Redwanz, Chuck Crittenden, Kent Petelle, Dan Vittum.

Troop 36, Carl Colinar; Troop 51, Ed Beier; Troop 53, Gary Young, Joe Charles.

Things Are Buzzing at Bumble Bee, Arizona

Bumble Bee is buzzing. Bumble Bee, Ariz., that is, pardner. The newsletter of the national association of real estate boards tells of the little town of 30 inhabitants which is on the market in a unique real estate transaction.

The recent death of her husband has caused the present owner to put the little community up for sale. It consists of half a dozen houses, school, general store, and gas station. As an added attraction, there's a good mine on the property occupying 310 acres of rocks and cactus, and what's in it is anybody's guess. At any rate, things are still buzzing in Bumble Bee.

Brides-to-be

The following marriage licenses were issued last week to residents of the north suburbs by Cook County Clerk Richard J. Daley:

Robert Reiter, Des Plaines, Barbara Busch, Chicago.

Joseph Watkins Jr., Barrington, Clarice Schultz, Wauconda.

LeRoy Mueller, Mount Prospect, Barbara McDonald, Arlington Heights.

Clarence Craig, Chicago, Patricia Kule, Arlington Heights.

Adapter Type Fixtures Require No Rewiring

First aid for small hallways. Bare bulb fixtures are not only unattractive but uncomfortable.

A new type of adapter fixture which screws into a socket like a light bulb can give you the effect of a new lighting fixture without expensive wiring.

As shown in the pictures above, the trim little fixture with its red and brass finish can quickly add new beauty and comfort to small areas.

General Electric home lighting specialists suggest that for best lighting results a 100-watt bulb should be used in this adapter style fixture.

A gift of lasting beauty from Flaherty Jewelers will be the highlight of every graduates' day. Flaherty's have a variety of gifts for both boys and girls. For something a bit unusual you might give her a musical compact by Elgin American or a mother of pearl compact with its matching lipstick case. Pearls, jewelry boxes, rings, and Trifari costume jewelry are always favorite gifts at graduation time.

Ideal for either boys or girls are Elgin American watches, bill folds, identification bracelets and many others at Flaherty's. Pen and pencil sets are gifts every graduate will enjoy. Shaeffer's new snorkel pen takes the "dunk" out of pen filling and eliminates ink running onto the fingers. Especially popular among the high school set are the new Photo Ident expansion bracelets by Speidel. They feature a secret photo compartment.

Flaherty's have also received a new selection of men's rings that really are distinctive. They feature crests and shields and are especially attractive.

SEE CUBS PLAY

When the sixth, seventh and eighth grade students started out for Cubs Park last Sunday noon, the weather looked very threatening, and some of the children decided to attend a movie rather than the ball game. However, the skies cleared in time for the game, and those that held out to see the Cubs had a fine time. In the late afternoon, all the children gathered on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hurlburt for a weiner roast.

Mrs. Magnussen's and Mrs. Mitchell's rooms had an outing at Brookfield zoo May 18, and May 25, they visited the Curtiss Farms. This included the first through the fifth grades.

Those beautiful flowers planted under the office window at the school were donated by Walter Heinze of Rand rd.

GRADUATION

Eighth grade graduation for the Wilson school will take place May 29 at 8 o'clock at the Arlington Heights high school. The public is invited to attend. The graduates are Sandra Schwaller, Hazel Rickert, Bonnie Schwantz, Priscilla Graham and John Hinitt. The invocation will be given by Rev. E. Behrens of the Faith Lutheran church, and Bonnie Schwantz will give the welcoming address and introduce Mr. Knoeppel whose subject will be "Let's look at High School." Miss Lucy Driscoll will speak on "The Challenge," Randy Hurlburt will play a trumpet solo, accompanied by his mother. The class song will be sung to the tune of "Alohoe" and the words were written by Mrs. Magnussen. Hazel Rickert will read the will and prophecy of the class. Mr. Hurlburt, president of the Wilson Board of Education, will present the diplomas. The palms for the stage will be supplied by Sylvia's Flower shop.

Awards will be presented as follows:

Perfect attendance: Marilyn Zbilski, Sandra Schwaller, Eileen Sundquist, Jill Hoffman, June Schneider, Bonnie Schwantz, Ronald East and Charles White.

NEW ARRIVAL

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Steiger of Chestnut rd. are parents of a baby girl, Toni, born May 20 at Sherman hospital, Elgin, weighing 7 pounds 8 ounces. Toni has one sister, Leanne, and two brothers, Peter and Eric.

John Hinitt was released from Great Lakes hospital last Saturday morning and attended school Monday morning. He will be able to graduate with his class.

Forest View School

School Picnic

The school picnic will be held Friday. Everyone is urged to meet at the school promptly at 9 p.m. as the permit for the picnic grounds in the forest preserves states they must be occupied no later than 9:30 a.m. All mothers who can are asked to drive as many cars will be needed to transport all the youngsters. Each pupil is to bring his own lunch, paper plates, napkins, and silverware. Mothers are reminded to bring the extra side dish they promised to share.

Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Grismer Jr. entertained Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ziesemer and family and Mrs. Geske from Milwaukee, Wis., Sunday.

The Stanley Luczak family visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Luczak Saturday evening.

Mrs. Emma Hutchings of Chicago spent Sunday with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hutchings and family.

Mrs. William Meyer, Mrs. Willard Consoer's mother, celebrated her birthday Sunday by entertaining her children and families, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meyer. The party was held at the Consoer home.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Holtz of Elgin visited the Chester Petersen family Sunday.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hutchings and sons went to Glenview to call on their relatives, William Haack and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Craver.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gorr and family of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Feifar and Lewis Feifar of Arlington Heights, helped celebrate Fred Gorr's birthday Thursday at his home.

Graduates

Congratulations to Joan Sundblad, Michael Grismer and Dickie Gorr, who will graduate from St. Peter Lutheran school kindergarten Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Luczak and daughters were recent callers at Mr. Luczak's cousin, Edwin Jobin's home, in Palatine.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Noling of Bakersfield, Calif., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Graves Sr. and family.

Wins On Amateur Show

Jeanine Garry, niece of Mrs. Charles P. Jevne, a contestant on the Morris B. Sachs amateur program May 17, won third prize. The award consisted of $20 cash, a Gruen wristwatch and an orchid, which had to be divided among Jeanine and three other members of the Harmonettes, the group she sang with.

Saturday visitors at the Walter Sundblad home were Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kanies and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heise and Mrs. Franzmann of LaCrosse, Wis., stopped in Monday for a brief visit with Mrs. James Burton and Jimmie. Mrs. Burton was formerly of LaCrosse. The visitors were enroute to Chicago to spend a week visiting their daughter, Mrs. Don Franzmann.

The William Sundblads recently attended the open house at the Illinois Tool Works in Chicago, where Mr. Sundblad is employed.

Mrs. Inaz Poyier and Mrs. Richard Stier attended the races at the Hawthorne track Monday. They accompanied Mrs. Poyier's sister, who owned a horse entered in the fifth race that day.

Judy Sullivan made her first communion Sunday at Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic church. Patsy Sullivan was in the May procession held the same day.

Four Graduate

Graduation exercises for four students of Forest View school were held Wednesday evening. Miss Lucy Driscoll, assistant county superintendent, was guest speaker. The graduates were Dorene Markus, Sandra Petersen, Anthony Consoer and Ronald Pratchen.

VA Tells What Removal Of Credit Controls Means To GI Buying A Home

Veterans administration has spelled what the recent removal of credit controls on GI loans means to the home-buying World War II or Korean veteran.

The action, effective April 25, 1953 and authorized by the housing and home finance agency, removes the last vestige of credit controls applied to GI loans under the defense production act.

In addition, VA said it has removed restrictions on how the four per cent gratuity payment made to veterans who obtain GI loans may be applied.

THE GRATUITY payment made by VA equals four per cent of the guaranteed portion of the GI loan up to a maximum of $160. Previously under credit controls, the gratuity had to be applied to reduce the principal amount of the loan.

Now, the lender and the veteran may also apply the gratuity in other ways, for example, to pay the first two or three installments on the loan, or to pay all or part of the first year's taxes and insurance.

The removal of credit controls means that under VA regulations it is now permissible for veterans to obtain GI home loans with no down payment and with a repayment term up to 30 years.

VA EMPHASIZED, however, that since VA guaranteed loans are made by private lending institutions, the lender makes the decision as to the terms of the loans it makes.

The amount of down payment and the length of the repayment period are matters to be agreed upon between the veteran and the lending institution making the loan.

Prior to the action removing controls, veterans were required to pay at least 5 per cent down in most cases, and the maximum loan was usually restricted to 20 or 25 years.

Credit controls were first applied to GI loans in 1950 shortly after the beginning of the Korean conflict as an anti-inflationary measure.

Feehanville School

Thursday night, May 21, Prospect Heights grade school gave the musical portion of their programs ending the school term. Our 6th, 7th and 8th grade pupils, who would be in Feehanville if we had the room, took part in the chorus and the band. Kay Phar, Jackie Alexander and Carol Larsen vigorously twirled their batons with three other girls. Billy Phar played the piccolo and Jim Brewer the bass drum and Jim Alenxander served as usher in showing the guests their seats.

Friday afternoon, May 29, at about 1 p.m., the band will play for the second half of the program when the school will present an all sport demonstration. Five minutes of Volley Ball by the 7th and 8th grade girls. Three teams of relays by the 6th, 7th and 8th grade girls and the 5th and 6th grade boys will participate in a basketball game. There will also be high and broad jumps.

Kay Phar will have had more than her share of public appearances when she performs as Drum Majorette, leading the band in a Memorial Day parade Saturday. It will be held in Mt. Prospect and starts at 10 o'clock in the morning. Our Feehanville students will have held their picnic by the time this column is out and I sincerely hope that the day is a perfect one. Charles Van Dyke's birthday is the day of the picnic and I hope he enjoys it all the more.

Scout News

The Girls Scouts held their last meeting of the year with an outing at East Lake Camp. They played a little baseball enjoyed refreshments and the leaders invested two new girls. Donna Huening and Janet Gross can now start working on their awards.

A little word of praise for the wonderful work the leaders, Mrs. Inez Hansen and Marie Sandquist have done. They managed to line up enough projects to keep the girls interested.

The Cubs and Brownies still have one more meeting before disbanding for the summer, and we usually have two or three outings in store for the Cubs to enjoy through the summer months. The little boys seem to demand more in the way of entertainment as they lose interest in everything so quickkly. We desperately need more den mothers and fathers who will give a few hours a month to this wonderful method of turning mischievious thoughts into worthy deeds. It does involve much thought and also means teaching the boys to use such items as hammers, saws and paint brushes, but the results are far more meritorious than a medal. Give it a little thought, parents of Feehanville, and please let me know if you should decide to work with us next year.

Registration

The registration for Feehanville will be held at the school from 10 o'clock to 2 o'clock June 3. All students new and old must register. Everyone's co-operation is requested, so that adequate plans can be made for the fall term. New and used books will be sold during the registration. You can purchase your children's books then.

Little Frankie Sullivan is on the sick list for a few weeks and was unable to attend the Feehanville picnic Wednesday.

New Uniforms

Last but not least the Forest River Brigade baseball team played against Elmhurst in the Forest Preserves Wednesday evening. They wore their new green and white uniforms for the first time. The Forest River church and the sponsors of the Brigade wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Adam Grenda who were the generous donors of the uniforms.

Too Much Oil

Too much oil on electric motor bearings is worse than none at all.

Children who will be starting in September in the first grade are asked to register at Feehanville school on June 3 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. This will give the teachers and the board some idea of how to plan for the beginning of the next term. In September, when school opens, all new students must have a birth certificate and a health certificate befort they can be started in school. Further information can be had by calling the teachers or Mrs. Remsing.

Thyra Engel was pleasantly surprised at a bridal shower held for her at her parents' home on Gregory ave. last Wednesday evening. Many of her relatives, friends and neighbors were on hand wih gifts to help her in her new home. She will become the bride of Bud Barber on June 27. The shower was given by her sister and sister-in-law, June Burgess and Jean Engel. June returned home in time to help with the shower preparations. June was injured in an auto accident early Sunday morning and spent those few days at St. Francis hospital.

Mrs. Paul Kleeman acted as the installation officer at the Feehanville P.T.A. meeting May 15. The officers she helped install at this meeting for the 1953-54 term are as follows: Mrs. Ed Mueller, president, Mrs. H. Frank Sullivan, vice president, Mrs. C. W. Flink, treasurer, and Mrs. Ed Brookhouzen, secretary. The graduates who were also present to receive their gifts from the P.T.A. are as follows: George Grenda, Keith Campbell, Harry Stavros, Wm. Kramer, Michael Oboyle, James Brewer, Carol Larsen, Jackie Alexander, Margaret Kirste and Kay Phar. The table was decorated very beautifully.

Delma Raw is at home now but will be on the convalescing list for quite some time. Her address is rte. 1, Foundry rd., Mt. Prospect.

From all reports the fifteenth anniversary party sponsored by the Community club was a grand success. A large attendance from Wheeling helped make it so. We all hope it was also a financial success as the building debts are still outstanding.

MRS. PAUL M. TABAR — CLearbrook 3-0423

Joyce LaBantschnig, Ervin Selof Are Wed

St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church of Arlington Heights was the scene May 9 of the wedding of Miss Joyce LaBantschnig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward LeBantschnig, 1038 Walnut, Arlington Heights, and Ervin H. Selof Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin H. Selof, 934 S. Highland ave., Arlington Heights.

Rev. Luther V. Stephan officiated at the ceremony held at 11 p.m. The ceremony, scheduled for 8 o'clock, was delayed when Pfc. Edward LaBantchnig Jr., best man, was delayed enroute home.

The bride wore a slate bule suit and a white hat trimmed with seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of pale yellow tea roses with a white orchid center.

Miss Margaret Selof, sister of the groom, was the maid of honor. She wore a navy blue suit trimmed with white and a corsage of white carnations and deep pink roses.

Pfc. Edward LaBantschnig, brother of the bride, was best man. He had just returned from Frankfort, Germany.

Following the ceremony a reception for the bridal party, members of the family and friends was held at the home of the bride.

Following their honeymoon in Wisconsin, the couple will temporarily make their home with the bride's parents.

Chicago Illinae Club To Meet

The Chicago Illinae club will have its annual meeting and luncheon at the University club, 76 E. Monroe, June 6 at 1 p.m.

Dr. Carroll L. Birch, professor of medicine at the University of Illinois, will tell the Illinae and friends of her recent experiences in India as dean of a medical college for one year. In addition to her talk, Dr. Birch will show her collection of kodachrome slides of scenes in India.

The committee, headed by Mrs. George E. Foster, has also planned some light entertainment and a luncheon. Reservations at $3 per person are being sent to Illini Center, LaSalle hotel. All alumnae and friends of the university are welcome. (B4

Install Officers At AAUW Dinner Meeting

Mrs. J. W. Hartman of Mount Prospect installed three officers at the recent annual dinner meeting of the Northwest Suburban Branch of the American Association of University Women. The new officers are Mrs. G. E. Bailey, president; Mrs. Rodney Ruth, recording secretary, and Mrs. L. J. Holmes, corresponding secretary.

MRS. J. W. HARTMAN

The annual dinner meeting was held last Thursday evening at St. Martin Episcopal church in Des Plaines. Dr. Ethel M. Barber, vice president and membership chairman of the Illinois division AAUW, was the guest speaker.

Mrs. Hartman, who resides at 403 S. Wille, Mount Prospect, has served as president of the local branch of AAUW for the past two years. She is also an active member of the branch's education and legislative study groups and is on the advisory board for the Migrant school which is sponsored every summer by AAUW.

WSCS To Hold Annual Breakfast

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church of Arlington Heights will hold its annual breakfast June 2 at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Herbert Reinshagen, Algonquin rd., Palatine.

Members may bring their children, since this will be an outdoor, informal morning.

Those who need transportation are asked to call their circle chairmen or the church office.

Mrs. Lura Whitelaw will lead the devotions and the only program will be a report from each circle on its year's work. Those members who have folding chairs are asked to bring one or two.

The Reinshagens moved several years ago from Arlington Heights to their farm and often extend their hospitality to many church groups.

Carol Schnell And James Giesler Marry

Community Camera

In a candlelight ceremony May 9 Miss Carol Lee Schnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schnell, State and Algonquin rds., Arlington Heights, became the bride of James Giesler, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Giesler, 902 E. Evergreen ave., Mount Prospect.

Rev. William J. Kamphenkel officiated at the ceremony held at St. John Evangelical and Reformed church. Miss Carolynn Kamphenkel sang "Ich Liebe Dich" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied at the organ by Mr. Buehler. An arch of gladioli and white daisies provided the setting for the wedding.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white embroidered organdy fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and long sleeves. Her fingertip length veil was held in place by an organdy bonnet, and she carried a small bouquet of gardenias, yellow roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Willard Heimsoth, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Mrs. Joseph Tichy, sister of the bride, Miss Joan Nagel, cousin of the bride, and Miss Marlene Giesler, sister of the groom, were the bridesmaids.

All attendants wore yellow ballerina length gowns with white embroidered overskirts and carried bouquets of white and yellow daisies. Miss Donna Bleile, the flower girl, also wore a yellow gown with a white embroidered overskirt. She carried a basket of yellow daisies.

Kenneth Rassh was best man, and Willard Heimsoth, Joseph Tichy and Dick Malone were the ushers.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Palatine Legion home for 300 guests.

Margaret Koelker And Bill Revers Take Vows

Community Camera

Baskets of pink and white snapdragons and carnations formed the setting for the wedding May 15 of Miss Margaret Koelker of 216 S. Walnut ave., Arlington Heights, and William Frank Revers.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Grace Koelker of Arlington Heights and Edward H. Koelker of Des Plaines, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Revers of Lincoln ave., Arlington Heights.

Rev. C. Victor Brown officiated at the 4 o'clock ceremony held at the First Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Elaine Kruse of Wheeling was the matron of honor. She wore a navy blue suit, a white hat and white gloves. She carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Orville Kruse of Wheeling was the best man.

Favorites for Flavor

By LOIS SEILER

A unique casserole, Mock Chop Suey, is a favorite in the Arthur Nelson household at 312 N. Dwyer, Arlington Heights. This hearty, satisfying dish combines finely chopped veal and pork, celery, cream and mushroom soup, chicken-rice soup, mushrooms and rice, with soy sauce as a seasoning.

A member of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church in Arlington Heights, Mrs. Nelson has brought this tasty dish to pot luck suppers at the church.

This recipe serves ten generously, and thus is an excellent casserole to prepare when entertaining guests. "An additional attribute of this dish is that it can be made at any time and just popped into the oven two hours before serving," said Mrs. Nelson.

As an accompaniment for Mock Chop Suey casserole, Mrs. Nelson suggests a grape salad. This unusual salad combines cherry jello and grape juice, with Bing cherries and pineapple chunks.

The casserole and grape salad is a complimentary combination designed to tempt either luncheon or dinner guests.

Mock Chop Suey Casserole

1 pound veal, cut very fine
1 pound pork, cut very fine
4 cups celery, chopped fine
1 can cream of mushroom soup
1 can chicken-rice soup
2 cups water
½ to ¾ cup raw rice
2 tablespoons soy sauce
1 can mushrooms

Brown the meat and celery. Combine with the remainder of ingredients and place in casserole. Bake two hours in 350 degree oven. Serves 10 generously.

Grape Salad

2 pkg. cherry jello
1 pint grape juice
1 No. 2 can Bing cherries
1 small can pineapple chunks

Dissolve the jello in the pint of boiling grape juice.

Drain the juice from the can of cherries. Add enough water to make another pint of liquid. Add to jello mixture.

Catholic High Club Plans Picnic May 31

Heights Catholic High club will hold a picnic for all high school girls and boys of St. James and Our Lady of the Wayside parishes in Arlington Heights May 31.

Transportation will be furnished and the cars will leave Marian Hall, corner of Frederick and Pine sts., at 5 p.m. and will return to the same place at 9 p.m.

The shelter at the Lake Avenue, east, forest preserve, has been reserved and hot dogs will be roasted in the fireplace.

All refreshments will be furnished by the High club and there will be no charge.

Reservations must be made with Janie Schumacher, CL 3-0474, by Friday evening.

Other business at the last meeting was the appointment of Joanne Muran as refreshment chairman and Dorinda Duby as membership chairman.

Nancy Nelson, Glen Gieseke Repeat Vows

Community Camera

Gowned in chantilly lace over satin Miss Nancy Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Nelson of Ela rd., Palatine, became the bride of Glen Gieseke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gieseke of Crystal Lake.

The bride's princess style gown was fashioned with an apron of nylon tulle over satin. The dress was designed with a mandarin neckline. Her fingertip length veil was held in place by a lace Juliet cap trimmed with seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of phaelanopsis and lilies of the valley.

Miss Marilynn Westfall of Palatine, the maid of honor, wore an orchid gown. The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Glade of Barrington, Miss Vivian Holtzee of Palatine and Miss Patricia Ross of Aurora. The bridesmaids wore green gowns.

All the attendants' gowns were fashioned with lace jackets with mandarin collars and three-quarter length sleeves and full net skirts. They also wore picture hats and carried colonial bouquets of tea roses surrounded by purple sweet peas.

Miss Mary Ann Cunny of Genoa, Ill., was the flower girl and she wore an orchid dress designed with a lace bodice and net skirt. She carried a basket of purple sweet peas. Tommy Gieseke of Crystal Lake, nephew of the groom, was the ringbearer.

Victor Gieseke of Crystal Lake, brother of the groom, was best man. Wallace Nelson of Palatine, Roger Rodewald of Arlington Heights and James Kresl of Crystal Lake were the ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Nelson wore an eggshell lace dress with pink accessories. The groom's mother wore a blue lace dress and blue accessories. Both mothers had corsages of pink glamellias.

Rev. Glenn G. Gumm officiated at the candlelight ceremony held May 9 at 7:30 p.m. at St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed church, Palatine. Miss Carole Johnson, cousin of the bride, sang "Beloved, It Is Morn," "Give Me Your Hand" and "The Lord's Prayer." Two baskets of white carnations, gladioli and snapdragons formed the setting for the wedding.

The couple honeymooned in Florida and are now making their home at 448 Main st., Crystal Lake.

Among the out-of-town guests were two uncles of the bride, Albin Johnson of Canada and Alex Nisson of Sweden.

Gladys Schwerman Is Bride Of Fred Meeske

Community Camera

In a quiet ceremony May 15 with only members of the immediate families present, Miss Gladys Schwerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schwerman, 115 S. William st., Mount Prospect, became the bride of Fred Meeske Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meeske of Mount Prospect.

Rev. W. C. Koester officiated at the ceremony held at St. Paul Lutheran church.

Miss Carla Jean Schwerman was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a pale pink suit and a corsage of American Beauty roses.

The young couple are honeymooning in Florida.

The Women's Guild of St. John's church, Bensenville, will be guests for the day. Everyone is welcome.

Hospital Auxiliary To Hold Luncheon

Resurrection Hospital Auxiliary will hold their June luncheon at the Fireside restaurant, corner of Touhy and Lincoln aves., June 4 at 1 p.m.

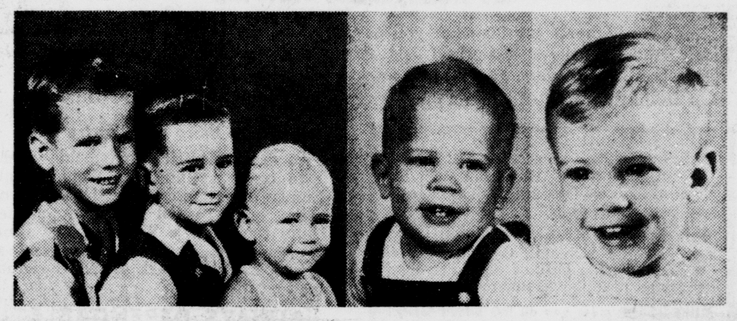

A musical theatre review, giving the story and songs of Rogers and Hammerstein's "The King and I" will be presented by Marie Doyle Fox, noted radio and concert star. She is a lyric soprano and will be accompanied by Mae T. Brown.

New officers will be installed at this luncheon and tickets will be available from Mrs. Harry Linn, 5736 N. E. Circle ave., phone Ne. 1-1232 as late as June 2. Members are invited to bring guests and prospective members.

Exotic Dish

For a delicious luncheon dish, try piling slices of hard-cooked eggs on slices of buttered toast; top with canned drained green asparagus tips and a cheese sauce.

Presenting the Younger Generation

Batter Up!

It is excellent baseball weather and that is just fine with the three young brothers pictured above. These little men are Edwin, Paul and Mark Pomplun, sons of Mr. and- Mrs. Richard Pomplun of 2103 S. Brockway, Palatine.

Edwin, the oldest of the three, will be 7 years old June 20. He has light brown hair, brown eyes and is in the first grade at St. Anne's school in Barrington. The middle-man, Paul, is 4½ years old and has light brown hair and brown eyes. Edwin and Paul are the baseball players. Little brother, Mark, although very interested, cannot take part, but follows along making an excellent mascot. Mark is 2½ years old, has light blond hair and brown eyes.

Grandparents of the boys are Mr. and Mrs. H. Warkenthien of Des Plaines and Mrs. C. Barcham of Brisbane, Queensland, Australia.

I'm Content

With a sweet smile and four pretty front teeth showing, Jimmy Mastrogany posed for this picture. Jimmy is the blond and blue-eyed 16-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Mastrogany of 640 S. Lincoln lane, Arlington Heights.

"Jimmy's a good baby, a bit mischievous, but quite content to sit and watch others do things," stated Mrs. Mastrogany. He seems to be taking his time to learn to walk and is content to have Mommy feed him. He has a brother, Skipper, who is 5½ years old and a member of the kindergarten at the Dryden schoo'

Grandparents of the boys are Mrs. M. Mastrogany of Dallas, Texas, and Mrs. F. Hager of Chicago.

Youngest of Three

The youngest member of the August Stelling family of 413 E. Euclid ave., is 2-year-old Billy, who recently had a birthday May 19. Besides this winning smile, Billy has blond hair and blue eyes. "He's a climber and into everything," declared Mrs. Stelling. That seemed to be the most complete description of this little fellow's activities.

There are two girls in the family, Lenore, 10, and Carla, 6, who attend the first grade at North school. Mr. and Mrs. William Knitz of Palatine and William Stelling of Palatine are the grandparents of the children.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The demonstrable truth that God, good, is the only might and Mind, robs evil of its fraudulent claims to place and power and brings it nearer to destruction. This will be explained in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 31. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be ANCIENT AND MODERN NECROMANCY, alias MESMERISM AND HYPNOTISM, DENOUNCED.

The Golden Text is from Jonah (2: 8,9) "They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy . . . Salvation is of the Lord."

Lesson-Sermon passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:

"I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked . . . They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth . . . And they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High? . . . When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me; Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end" (Ps. 73:3,9,11,16,17).

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include:

"The wicked man is not the ruler of his upright neighbor. Let it be understood that success in error is defeat in Truth . . . The destruction of the claims of mortal mind through Science, by which man can escape from sin and mortality, blesses the whole human family" (pp. 239, 103).

Guild Card Party Is A Success

The sixth annual spring card party of the Evening guild of St. John Episcopal church, Mount Prospect, held May 21, attracted one of the largest numbers of guests in the history of the event.

A group of more than 450 people met to play bridge and canasta at Arlington Heights township high school cafeteria.

The stage display, attractively decorated to show the numerous gifts, was the work of Mrs. A. Bernard Wood and her committee.

Nuts for all 150 tables were furnished by Arlington Heights Pharmacy. Busse-Biermann Hardware donated book matches. Card tables for the occasion were by courtesy of Black's Funeral Home and Lauterburg and Oehler. The Emerald Shop and Black's furnished playing cards. Score pads were from Mayfair Rug Co. and tallys from Mrs. Stevens Candies. Ash trays were from Arlington Furniture Mart.

Numerous merchants in the area contributed generously to the success of the affair by donating gifts.

Mrs. Robert Stark, social chairman of the Evening guild, was assisted by the following ladies, who served coffee and cake donated by members: Mrs. Robert Erickson, Mrs. Albert Lees, Mrs. Thomas Nakos, Mrs. Clair B. Owen Jr., Mrs. G. A. Risler and Mrs. Eldon C. Robson.

The Evening guild also wishes to thank all the townspeople who attended and helped to make the affair such a success. Proceeds will benefit the building fund of the proposed new Episcopal church. (AM

Spears Receives Award In Better Copy Contest

W. H. (Billy) Spears, public relations director, National City Lines, accepted an award as the winner in the 1953 Better Copy Contest of the Public Utilities Advertising Association at that group's annual meeting at St. Louis.

The award was a tribute to the quality of advertising of Tampa Transit Lines, an NCL subsidiary. The copy for which the award was presented centered around the theme that "you can't squeeze all of the cars into the downtown district."

This is Spears' 16th award within the last 14 months. He is president of Arlington area school board assn., and president, Prospect Heights board of education.

Patrol Boys, Auxiliary Girls Treated to Cub Baseball Game

The Arlington Heights police department was host to 170 patrol boys at Wrigley Field Monday. The boys, who watched the Cubs and St. Louis Cardinals play ball, are members of the school patrol boys from six Arlington Heights elementary schools.

The police department was aided financially by several of the local civic organizations and a number of individuals. The outing is given in recognition of the boys' outstanding work in safeguarding the 3000 elementary school children on their way, to and from school, each day regardless of weather or conditions. In addition to their transportation by bus, and admission to the ball park, the boys are given a half dollar, as they board the bus, to spend as they choose.

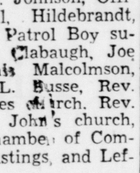

The group was supervised by Chief Skoog, Sgt. Johnson, Officers McDougall, Hildebrandt, Firnbach, School Patrol Boy supervisors, Ralph Clabaugh, Joe Tomlinson, Dennis Malcolmson, Mr. Hetke, K. L. Busse, Rev. Reicher, St. James church, Rev. Kamphenkel, St. John's church, Nelson Hauff, Chamber of Commerce, Harold Hastings, and Lefty Aldrich.

The Auxiliary Girls from the Junior high school also attended the game and were accompanied by Russel Savage, principal of the Junior high. Their trip was sponsored by the P.T.A.

CHILDREN'S SUMMER READING PROGRAM

A Book

A book I think is very like
A little golden door
That takes me into places
That I've never been before.

It leads me into fairyland
Or countries strange and far
And, best of all, the golden door
Always stands ajar.

Adelaide Love.

WITH LONG, lazy summer days just ahead, every boy and girl should spend some time each day reading. To stimulate interest in both old and new books the library is sponsoring a summer reading club for boys and girls in the first through sixth grades.

Members must read ten books during the ten-week period from June 8 through August 22; each book must be returned with a short report on the title, author and story; each member must register at the library during the week of June 1 through 6. Many new books, together with old favorites, will make an interesting summer of good reading.

At the end of the ten-week period a party will be held for all those young people who have read their required number of books and turned in their reports. Listed below are some of the new books that will be on the library shelves June 8:

Juvenile fiction: "Pancho," "Miss Pickerell and the Geiger Counter," "The Victory Drum," "Captive of the Delawares," "Golden Cloud in Texas," "Just Like Nancy," "Magic for Mary M.," "Little Red, the Fox," "Amos, the Beagle With a Plan," "Big Mose," "John and Juan in the Jungle," "Johnny Texas on the San Antonio Road," Everyday Science Stories: "Oliver Sounds Off," "Skinny Joins the Circus," "Flower Box Surprise," "Dynamite, the Wild Stallion," "The Magic Cane," "Jill Has Two Ponies," "The Heart for Baseball."

Juvenile non-fiction: "Riches from the Earth," "Wonders of the Tree World," "A Child's Book of Insects," "Fun With Science," "The Sun," "Wonders of the Woodland Animals," "Wonder World of Insects," "William Bradford, Pilgrim Boy," "John Sevier, Pioneer Boy," "Young Ike," "Winston Adventure books: "Boy Heroes of Chapultepec," "Lost Colony," "The Lawless Land," "Brave Venture," "Courage to Command," "Continent for Sale," "Who Travels There," "On Land and Water," "Working and Dreaming," "Winning Our Way," "The World's Gifts," "Living and Serving."

FOR THE PRE-SCHOOL thru third grader:

"Trails of Adventure," "Around the Year," "Through the Ages with Fire," "Good Friends," "Pioneers of the Deep," "Playmates," "We See," "Sunshine and Rain," "Friends to Know," "Indoors and Out," "Adventures in Science," "Winter Comes and Goes," "Happy Times," "Here and There," "Through the Year," "Ben and Alice," "The Seasons Pass," "In Town and Country," "In Storm and Sunshine," "Away We Go," "Adventures in Science with Judy and Joe," "Mr. Putterbee's Jungle," "When the Moon is New," "Tell Me Little Boy," "Alpine Paths," "Little Dermot and the Thirsty Stones," "In the country."

Shellac Stops Rust

Nail heads won't rust if they have been touched up with shellac.

New Vice President

The appointment of LeRoy A. Davis, 208 Hi-Lusi, Mt. Prospect, as assistant cashier of the Federal Reserve bank of Chicago has been announced. Mr. Davis has been representing the bank in Indiana and will be assigned to the check department. He has been with the bank since 1929, with the exception of a tour of duty in the armed services from 1941 to 1946. He entered the military service as a lieutenant when the Illinois National Guard was inducted in February, 1941, and was separated from active duty with the rank of lieutenant colonel. At the present time he is in command of the 122nd field artillery, 33rd infantry division.

Bishop To Open Building Drive At June 9 Meet

Right Rev. Wallace E. Conkling, Bishop of Chicago, will be present at the opening of a drive for a permanent church building for St. Philip's Episcopal church, Palatine. This will take place at a parish dinner June 9 in the parish hall at 6:30 p.m.

St. Philip's Episcopal church, founded in 1947, remained in mission status only 18 months before becoming a self-supporting parish. Since that time the membership has grown to 145 communicants, with a church school enrollment of nearly 85.

THE PRESENT building, on the corner of Wood and Schubert, one block west of the Northwest hwy., was erected in 1948-49 as the first unit, comprising a temporary chapel, a rectory, and a parish hall. The need is now apparent for the permanent church home to provide for the expanding congregation and church needs.

This new church will have seating for 185 people, space downstairs for church school classes, an expanded music program and parish social affairs.

The present chapel will be converted into a guild hall for organization meetings, such as the Women's auxixliary and the youth group. It can also be used for church school classes, as is the present basement area.

The building committee is under the chairmanship of Ralph H. Rockwood. Following are the sub-committees: Mr. Rockwood, William Iber, and Donald Scott, arrangements; Palmer Bissell, Arthur Johnson, Vern Emrich, canvass; Quentin Ford and Leslie Inglis, finance; David Rotroff and David Terrill, publicity; Emory Moore, James Seiler, George Gschwindt and Dr. Carl Peterson, program.

At the meeting the parish situation and needs will be presented, the first drafts of the proposed building will be described, and the financial picture will be given. The Bishop will speak last on the program. (P-F

Patricia Nolan Places Twenty-first in National Spelling Bee

Patricia Nolan, 7th grader in the Arlington Heights Junior high school, winner of the Cook County Public-Parochial spelling contest, placed 21st among 53 contestants in the National spelling bee conducted in Washington, D.C. Thursday, May 21.

Pat completed twelve rounds of perfect spelling, remaining in the contest from 8 a.m. until nearly 3 p.m. before being eliminated. Patricia missed on the word "cuirass" after having spelled beleaguered, staccato, clique, equestrienne, propinquity, and words of comparable difficulty.

She was disappointed in having missed a word during the twelfth round, but took some consolation from the fact that she had beaten 32 other spellers from cities over the United States.

Mrs. Charles Nolan, Patricia's mother, made the trip to Washington along with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Deever of the Chicago Daily News staff and Bette Bliss of Caldwell School in Chicago, the Chicago city champion. The group was in the nation's capitol for almost a week, spending the time sight-seeing, attending a session of Congress, and meeting various governmental officials.

Two highlights of the trip for Patricia were meeting and talking with Vice President Nixon and having lunch with Margaret Stitt Church, the Illinois representative to Congress from this district.

Noel Coward's 'Present Laughter' Next at Showcase

Noel Coward's sharp, witty comedy, "Present Laughter," opens Tuesday evening, June 2 for a two-week run, at Evanston's air conditioned Showcase theatre with an all-professional cast.

Showcase's director David Lewis, who is fast endearing himself to the theatre-goers as an actor, plays the lead role of Garry Essendine a popular and pampered stage star. With Mr. Lewis, Viola Berwick as his secretary; Barbara Foley, as his wife; Pat Stedman as the stage-struck youngster; Dorothy Langdon as the "sterotyped siren," and ably supported by Hope Summers, Mike Harris, Irwin Charone, Laura Wood, Sid Breeze and Eddie Simmons.

Honors Slain Officer

A bronze plaque honoring the memory of Harry W. Bending Jr., Des Plaines police officer slain in the holdup of a finance company last August, has been received. It is expected the city will hold formal ceremonies dedicating the plaque in the near future.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Pictures of well known landmarks will keep memories of home fresh for those in service.

Don't Forget—Send Snapshots to Servicemen

THE theme of this column is one that is not new, but always important — that of sending pictures to those in service. Many of us at the present time have friends or relatives who are in the armed forces, and we may forget at times what a vital part pictures play in the mail they receive.

As fine as letters are, a story is told so much better when accompanied by pictures. They may not even always be new snapshots. Oftentimes you'll find extra prints of pictures you've taken some time ago will be of great interest to the person to whom you're writing.

As we all know, memories fade, even of people and places we love most. Nothing will revive and keep a memory fresh as pictures. Snapshots are also wonderful for keeping those in service up on what is happening at home — send them of new buildings going up in town, a new nephew in the family, the new car, etc. For those in service want pictures, not only for themselves, but to show their friends.

There's a woman I know who takes many such pictures and shares them as widely as possible. When she takes a roll or two of pictures, she mentally reviews her friends and neighbors. If any of them know someone in service who would be interested in some of the shots she's taken, she orders extra prints to send them. Many people have reaped the benefits of her thoughtfulness.

I'd like to point out, too, that you should not confine yourself just to black-and-white film. Remember that you can make wonderful snapshots in color with even the simplest camera — and that you can have color prints made from your transparencies. It's usually best to send small prints because only in rare cases do men and women in service have a place to keep enlargements.

No one can question the importance of mail in the life of those in service, whether they are overseas, on the sea or at stateside bases. But the inclusion of snapshots will increase the enthusiasm with which it is received.

—John Van Guilder

How Not To Stock That Fish Pond

Most middle-aged fishermen have been taught many rules of sportsmanship from childhood like the rusty rules that a good sport will always put the little fish back so they can grow up; if you want good fishing stock the water, heavily each year—these like most of the others are based on error, not facts.

Now the sign of intelligent sportsmanship is the habit of taking out all you catch, big and little, but preferably the little fish. To insure good fishing, only one stocking is necessary for a new pond and that with comparatively few fish.

A POND is just like any other pasture, except that it's covered with water. It will provide just so much food and that's all. A cow only has one calf a year so one can have several cows on an acre of grass. A fish will have several thousand young a year so it's very easy to get far too many fish for the available food supply. Nobody wants skinny, half starved calves. Nobody wants skinny, half starved fish.

Another fallacy that most pond owners are subject to is the idea that several different kinds of fish must be stocked to insure a good fishing crop. They will dump in hordes of a dozen kinds of fish and then wonder why they never catch anything but undersized bluegills or croppies.

THEN EVEN if the pond owner does use good judgment in stocking, some knuckleheaded fisherman will dump the remaining minnows from his minnow bucket in the pond and then it's all over, for he can't tell the difference between a baby carp and a minnow.

So if you don't want good fishing in your pond, stock it heavily with all kinds of fish and always throw back the little ones.

Library to Hold Summer Reading Program for Grade School Students

For fun, adventure and good reading habits first through fifth grade students of Arlington Heights are invited to enroll in the summer reading club at Memorial Library.

Prospective members must enroll at the library the week of June 1-6. The reading period begins June 8 and from that time until August 22, members must read and report on at least 10 books.

Beginning Wednesday morning, June 10, the story hour will be held at 10 a. m. each Wednesday morning throughout the summer. The story hour has been held on Saturdays during the school year.

Memorial Service at Western Electric

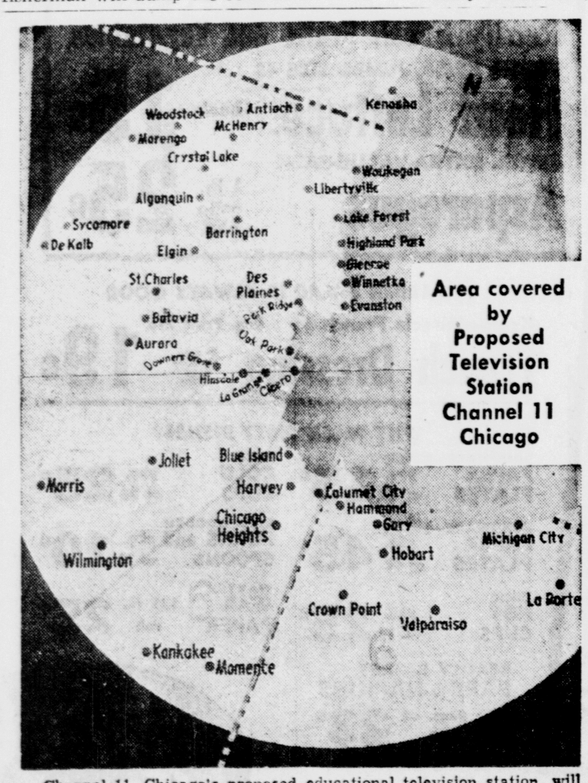

Pre-Memorial day ceremonies will be held at the Western Electric company's Hawthorne works Friday, May 29, in a noon-hour program.

Wreaths will be placed on two bronze plaques at the company's memorial fountain, in honor of the 31 Hawthorne employees who died in World War I and the 152 in World War II.

SECURITY

If living in disobedience to ought to feel no security, although God is good.

—Mary Baker Eddy

Channel 11, Chicago's proposed educational television station, will cover the 60 mile radius as shown in the map above. Communities in this 60 mile area are organizing fund campaigns to raise $800,000 by June 2nd, the deadline set by the Federal Communications Commission. The $800,000 is needed to establish and maintain the station for a two year period.

Suburbs To Be Aided By Mobile X-Ray In June

"The chest X-ray is medical science's best tool in finding tuberculosis in its early stages," Mrs. M. Rodewald, 204 N. Evergreen, Arlington Heights X-ray survey chairman, said this week

"Tuberculosis has no symptoms in the early stages," she said, "and therefore an annual chest X-ray is necessary."

The mobile X-ray unit arrives in Wheeling Tuesday, June 16, moving on to Mt. Prospect Wednesday, June 17, for one day, and then to Arlington Heights for the remainder of the week.

"THE TUBERCULOSIS Institute reports 313 new cases of TB in suburban Cook county during 1952." Mrs. Rodewald said. "Thirty-eight per cent were persons beyond 45 years of age, while 60 per cent of the total cases were men and 40 per cent women."

Everyone 15 years of age and over is eligible for a free chest X-ray, and those 45 and beyond are especially urged to take advantage of this service.

The X-ray takes but a minute through the outer clothing. No undressing is necessary. A report is mailed to the home within two weeks.

The project is sponsored jointly by the Suburban Cook county Tuberculosis Sanitarium district and the Tuberculosis Institute—the Christmas Seal organization. (ACM

American Legion Queen Contest in Full Swing

The Freedoms Day Queen's contest sponsored by the Merle Guild Post No. 208 of Arlington Heights is well under way. The Contest Committee, headed by Legionnaire George Thompson, has extended the deadline for nominations for an indefinte period to give all candidates an equal chance.

Appearing elsewhere in this paper is a ballot which may be placed in the official Ballot Box located at the Arlington Heights Pharmacy. Vote now and vote often, for your personal favorite. Additional ballots can be obtained from any Legionnaire.

The queen and her court will preside over the annual Legion Carnival from June 30, through July 5. She will ride on a special float in the Fourth of July Parade, receive a $50 government defense bond, a beautiful trophy and valuable prizes donated by local merchants. Additional trophies and prizes will also be awarded to the next four runner-ups.

Hill Promises to Make Good on Promises to Palatine School Board

Kimball Hill conferred with the board of education of Palatine Consolidated School Dist. No. 15 Wednesday evening. He assured the board members that he has every intention of keeping the promises originally made to that body regarding school housing and the ultimate erection of a school house to serve the development for which definite approval has been given by the county.

Un-Realistic Scenes Used For 'O. K. Nero'

Silvana Pampanini, as Empress Poppaea, and Gino Cervi as the Emperor Nero, appear in the new I. F. E. release "O. K. Nero" which has its American premiere at the Monroe Treatre May 28.

"O. K. Nero," American language I. F. E. release that opens May 28 at the Monroe theatre, is a rollicking satire on all such super epics as "Quo Vadis."

The exterior scenes for "O. K. Nero" were shot in Rome and its environs, but very few authentic backgrounds were used.

The story of "O. K. Nero" deals with two American sailors who are slugged while sightseeing in Rome. Together they dream they are living in the days when the city was at its Imperial height and Christians were being served up as the main course for the lions at Nero's circuses. Posing as two of the most cowardly gladiators ever to cringe behind a shield, they embark on a series of misadventures that include a pocket billiard contest with Nero, the establishment of an amusement park named "Luna Parcus" a football game with a Grecian urn as the pigskin and a jam session with Roman musicians.

Vets May Fill Reserve Obligations In Reserves With Pay, Advancement

Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 322d Logistical Command, an army reserve unit, has numerous opportunities for men separated from the service to discharge their reserve obligation, and at the same time receive pay and work toward advancement.

M/Sgt. Gene S. Balke of 617 Oriole Lane, Mt. Prospect, member of the 322d, explained that most army discharges at present time are obligated to serve in the army reserves for a period of years, depending on when they entered the service. While serving that period of his obligation, the 322d offers, in addition to training pay, many opportunities for advancement for enlisted men to Master Sergeant, and in some instances, to Warrant Officer.

"ONE OF THE primary reasons reservists participate in the army reserves is patriotism," M/Sgt. Balke said. "That is the underlying motive for most people who give of their time and efforts as civilian soldiers. However, pay and retirement enter into the picture because the patriot does appreciate having his motives recognized."

The retirement phase of the reserve program M/Sgt. Balke explained, means that after 25 years combined active duty and reserve service, and attainment of age sixty, the reservists may retire with an annuity based upon his maximum rank and pay.

The 322d also offers men who have not been drafted a chance to remain in training and to receive training pay before induction. In addition, he may go on active duty with whatever rank he attains and he may request the service of his choice.

The 322d meets each Friday night at Bay 60 of the Navy Pier. Men interested in the reserves should attend a meeting there between 7 and 9 o'clock any Friday night for additional information.

William E. Rasch, Route 3, Box 16, Palatine, has been appointed chairman of the local committee of the University of Chicago Alumni Foundation campaign for the 1953 alumni gift to the 61-year-old university.

Honored at Hines

F. Norman Roche of Palatine was recently honored for ten years service at the veterans administration hospital at Hines Ill., in a special ceremony May 14.

Luggage Fashions Favor 'Soft' Bag

A new trend in women's luggage is to the "soft" bag.

Many soft-sided new "carryalls" are coming out in all sizes. Typical of the new style luggage is one zippered case in tan and white canvas. This bag has a place for six pairs of shoes, but when the shoe compartment is removed, there is a big expansible space for such clothing as pajamas, sweaters, and other pieces that pack better rolled than folded flat.

Another popular new style is built along lines of the Navy's sea bag. In Scotch plaid canvas, it has handles at the top. This deep, roomy bag is ideal for packing oddsize items and for clothing that does not have to be folded flat.

Funeral services were held May 25 for Mrs. Bessie Maude Vincent, 71, late of 24 Roosevelt ave., Buckeye, Ariz., in Shenandoah, Ia., at 3:30 p.m. Interment Rosehill cemetery. Black's Memorial Home, Arlington Heights, was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Vincent died May 22 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Velve Welsh of Mount Prospect. Mrs. Vincent was born January 24, 1882, in Shenandoah, Ia.

She leaves her daughter, Mrs. Welsh of Mount Prospect; a son, Earl L. Vincent, and six grandchildren.

Mrs. Anna Nonnemacher

Funeral services for Mrs. Arthur Nonnemacher, Rand rd., Palatine, were held at the Methodist church, Palatine, Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Fetz officiated. Interment was in Randhill cemetery.

She died suddenly Sunday morning. She had gone into the kitchen to prepare breakfast. It is presumed that she suffered a heart attack almost immediately as her husband entering the kitchen later found her lifeless body upon the floor.

In addition to her husband she leaves a son, Dale; two daughters, Carol Ann Dulfer and Betty Church; five grandchildren; two brothers, Eugene and Clarence Voras; one sister, Mrs. Elenor Kraeplin, and her father and mother. Theirs was a closely knit family, and with the exception of two who reside in Barrington, their homes nearly adjoin each other on Rand rd. in the vicinity of County Line rd.

Deceased was born January 28, 1901, in Matton, Wis. She married Arthur Nonnemacher in June, 1922 and for the past 24 years they have lived in Palatine.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond and loving memory of our dear son and brother, Austin B. Buncik, M. M. 3c, who gave his life for his country nine years ago, June 6, 1944.

The silent night is lonely and
There is no golden dawn
Because we must remember son,
That you are really gone;
We still remember in our hearts
The happiness we knew
The many pleasant times we had
When we went out with you.
There is no joy and happiness
In flowers that we plant,
And if we call your name we hear
The sound of emptiness.
We roam the house from room to room
We gaze beyond as far as we can see
But there is nothing we can do
To bring you back to our family.
We have to tell ourselves again
That you are really gone
And we can only ask the Lord
For strength to carry on.
But you're not alone in that grave o'er the sea
For there's where our hearts will always be.

Loving Father, Mother, Brothers and Sisters. (*

CARD OF THANKS

Our heartfelt thanks to all who extended comforting sympathy and help in our recent bereavement. For the beautiful floral offerings and memorials we are deeply grateful.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear husband, father and grandfather, William Hauser, who passed away two years ago on May 31st.

A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
Some may think you are forgotten
Tho on earth you are no more
But in memory you are with us
As you always were before.

About Your Health

Very few persons today have not at some time or other complained of aching feet, yet many of these foot discomforts could be avoided if proper attention were given to the selection of footgear. Actually the care of the feet starts in infancy and childhood, and many adults would have normal feet had they been given adequate care when they were children.

There are many factors which influence the growth of bones of the feet, but one of the contributing factors to improper growth, not associated with disease and injury, is inadequately fitted stockings and shoes.

A stocking that may have been comfortable on sitting restrains the foot when standing.

Thus, continued wearing of a short stocking that does not permit the toes to stretch forward on weight bearing may often cause bunions and even hammer toes.

A MOTHER, for example, will frequently pull the stocking at the child's heel, such as she would fit a kid glove to her hand. This procedure is wrong. The properly fitted stocking should be long enough to permit the toes freedom on standing, and the stocking should be pulled loosely along the toes to insure this action. If properly fitted, the stocking will not wrinkle.

Very often mothers are in doubt when selecting shoes for their children. They wonder whether high or low shoes are preferable. Unless a deformity of the foot exists, either congenital or acquired, the answer is simple. Every child has what looks like a flat foot until the third year of age. The condition is normal because the youngster has not had the opportunity to wear off the fat pad on the foot, which is normally present. For this reason, it is not too important in the very young child to have a rigid soled shoe.

AN OXFORD type shoe with a flat heel, a rigid sole and a broad toe gives the growing child of three or more support and comfort and allows normal activity of the tendons and muscles of the foot in walking.

Anything that is bound or immobilized naturally restrains freedom of action. Thus it is with the foot. The ankle joint is made up of the main long bone of the leg called the tibia, which forms a socket. The astralgus, which is the joining bone of the foot, provides the gliding or rotating portion of the ankle. The foot itself, which is a very complicated mechanism of movement going from the heelbone to the toes, contains twenty-six bones. Normally the foot is flexible, and has two arches, commonly known as the longitudinal arch, extending from the heel to the ball of the foot, and the transverse arch which runs across the ball of the foot and bears the greatest part of the weight in walking.

WHEN A HIGH SHOE is on the foot, motion is restricted, but when a low shoe is worn there is no obstruction to the free range of motion. It is important to remember that the feet of a child are constantly growing—widening and lengthening, and that the feet should be allowed a freedom of motion during the growth period. For this reason it is far more important that a child wear a low shoe than an adult.

This does not mean that a child of a year or eighteen months old should be made to wear an oxford type of shoe. Children of this age do not have stability, but as soon as their feet begin to stabilize the low-cut shoe should be permitted.

Help your child to avoid painful feet. Remember that on weight-bearing the foot elongates and spreads. Allow for this when choosing footgear for your child.

High Windows Help

Bits O' Business

Stuffy as it may seem, the way to move quickly into the $7500-a-year class is to work for a bank, the Hanover Trust Co. is saying in a booklet for college graduates . . . Fears of added cotton planting have been reduced by wet weather in the Southeast, which keeps plows out of the fields . . . Oil refiners are softening up users for a half-cent increase in the spread on premium gasoline.

TAX FACTS

By George S. Mahin, Executive Secretary Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

"The issue is not whether policemen should have adequate salaries. We think they should. The issue is whether the state legislature should dictate to local governments on police salaries."

The issue, so clearly laid on the line in an editorial in the Bloomington Pantagraph, was clearly answered by the Illinois house of representatives by a vote of 95 to 36 for H.B. 174 to dictate that municipalities must pay policemen at least $300 a month in municipalities as small as 5000 population up to at least $350 a month in cities over 75,000 except Chicago. The bill still must be passed by the senate which may disagree with the position of the house on this issue.

Of the 95 votes for the bill, 37 were by Chicago representatives. The bill does not apply to Chicago. An amendment to make the bill apply to Chicago was killed. Of the 37 Chicago representatives who voted for this bill to compel cities and taxpayers outside Chicago to pay at least minimum salaries, 27 had previously voted to kill the amendment to impose minimum salaries for policemen on Chicago.

Of the 58 Representatives outside Chicago who voted for this bill, 44 had previously voted to kill the amendment to make the bill apply to Chicago.

It is difficult to see why, if this bill is bad for Chicago, it isn't bad for cities outside Chicago too.

The house also passed by a vote of 87 to 35 H.B. 84 giving school districts with outstanding bonds power to increase building fund taxes without referendum. This bill is now before the senate. If you believe that there should be no increase in taxing power without referendum, your senator is now the one to so advise.

H.B. 411 to give cities power to impose a sales tax without referendum is still on second reading in the house, becomes more and more of a threat as bills move along to compel cities to increase salaries or other costs.

The one bright spot of the week was the addition of referendum protection to S.B. 3300, 301 and 302 in senate municipalities committee with the consent of the sponsor, Senator McClory. These bills as introduced empowered counties to levy new taxes without referendum.

Trees and Shrubs Have Longer Planting Season

Trees and shrubs and other perennial nursery stock, by contrast with seeds, can be transplanted on your own property, during any month of the year, according to the American association of nurserymen. The only exception is the middle of the winter in areas of the country where the ground freezes solidly and there is too much snow to make transplanting practical without undue labor. The wintertime even is a good time to plant, if the ground isn't too frozen to dig a hole for the plant.

In recent years improved handling of nursery stock has spread the planting season to twelve months of the year over most areas of the country. Local nurseries can even deliver trees and shrubs in full leaf and have them continue to thrive.

MAC SAYS

BY G. A. McELROY

The Northwest conference baseball race is ended. The Bisons finished on top for the second year in a row with a 9-1 record behind the capable hurling of Sloan and Jankers. Coach Tom Meneguin expressed the key to the success of the team when he commented he had a wonderful group of boys who worked hard all the way to stay on top. Our congratulations join with those of Bison fans on an excellent season.

Palatine had their best season to finish second with but two defeats, both of them at the hands of the championship Bisons. George Ogurek, a Wisconsin transfer at Palatine, lost only one mound decision and in all other games held the opposition to five hits or less to rank with Dave Sloan of the Bisons as the best twirlers in the circuit.

WE HAVE A NOTE from Jack Kinder, Barrington High baseball coach, stating that the Cleveland Indians will hold a tryout camp at the Barrington High School June 4 and 5 for boys between the ages of 17 and 21 who want to get started in professional baseball.

The camp opens at 10:00 a. m. and facilities will be provided for up to 100 boys, each of whom must bring their own uniform, shoes, and glove.

MARKS WERE VERY GOOD in the Northwest conference track meet considering that more than half the points were scored by freshmen and sophomores. There were few seniors graduating from any of the teams, so the class of competition will be on the upgrade.

This does not mean that Palatine will be pressed to stay on top for the Pirates had more underclass scoring than any of the teams and at the same time more than doubled the count on second place Wauconda.

Coach Welty expects to have a good enough team the next three years to be a class "A" Palatine Relays contender. Norman Stenzel, who was just beaten out by a narrow margin from getting into the select six who ran in the state finals in the high and low hurdles, is expected to be the class of this area in these events next year.

AN EVENT THAT ACTUALLY, in sports circles, overshadows the LaGrange state title in basketball and track is the breaking of a 24 year old national track record in the mile relay by the LaGrange team. Deprived of a chance to crack the mark when the state meet was run in the rain the Lyons township quartet determined to achieve this goal in the West Suburban track meet last Wednesday.

Officials of the state high school association were on hand to testify to the results and everything necessary to prove the marks was provided.

Averaging 50.3 seconds a man the quartet of R. Caffey, H. Caffey, Poindexter and Evans ran the event in 3:21.2 and broke the national record.

Only H. Caffey is a senior and there are a lot of good replacements coming up. They say there is an eighth grader in LaGrange who has run the 440 in 52 seconds.

BARRINGTON HAS CLINCHED the North Suburban baseball championship, their second title winner in their first year of league membership. They won the basketball championship, tied for first in JV basketball, and took second in football for a great sports year.

EVERY SCHOOL HAS SOME PROBLEM BOYS. Evidently those at Barrington have more originality than the unknown culprits who used gasoline three weeks ago to burn the grass on the Palatine athletic field in the form of a large "A".

At Barrington where there are more students with high IQ's a sample of original escapades is the recent act of planting trees four feet deep on the baseball field at each of the bases and the pitcher's mound.

The boys were apprehended and justly punished, but you have to agree it was the most original trick pulled in this area in years.

BARRINGTON AND PALATINE will reopen basketball competition in a rivalry which dates back 25 years when they meet at Barrington on December 28, 1954. This past year and next the Pirate-Broncho series has been interrupted due to the Barrington change to the North Suburban which interferred with Barrington scheduling.

Next Christmas vacation Palatine plays DuSable and Barrington meets Dundee but in 1954 the two old rivals will again get together and it is hoped the two may meet regularly in all sports in spite of membership in different conferences.

THE SHOT PUT RECORD of the West Suburban league which Arlington's Dick Winterbauer failed to break was made in 1940 by Lou Saban of LaGrange, a Cleveland Browns' all-pro star for two years . . . Lou's brother, John, pupil of Chuck Bennett at LaGrange, has been signed by the Bears . . . Maine's spring sports banquet was held Tuesday night, honoring all athletes and naming Al Beam most valuable to the championship baseball squad . . . Deadline June 9 For JC Jr. Golf

Deadline for entries in the coming JC junior golf tournament at Arlington country club has been set as June 9, it was revealed this week by Bruno Waara, Wheeling township JC member in charge of the tournament. Entry blanks can be secured from either Waara or Arlington Heights high school golf coach Curtis Larsen.

An entry fee of one dollar will be charged all boys under 18 years of age entering the tournament June 15, but no greens fees paid.

To be awarded will be a low gross trophy, with the two low gross boys slated to enter the state JC tournament at Harvey, Illinois, the week of July 20, all expenses paid.

The other boys in the meet will be participating in Peoria system blind bogey competition, with a handicap to be set up for these boys

State winners will go on to national competition, all expenses

Palatine Edges Ela, 1-0, To Stay In Second Spot

Coach Tom Meneguin's Bensenville Bisons won their second straight Northwest Conference baseball championship Tuesday by beating Antioch in the final game of the season 5-4 in an extra inning. The victory gave the Bisons a 9-1 record. Last year they tied with Ela-Vernon for first place honors. Palatine clinched second place with a 1-0 victory at Ela-Vernon for their seventh win in nine games.

Dave Sloan pitched the first six innings for the Bisons and then Jankers, his battery mate, took over on the mound and fanned four Sequoits in the two remaining frames. The Bison hurlers gave up only four hits but jittery fielding by their team mates prolonged the final decision. In the last of the eighth Gene Benhart, center fielder, led off with a single and was batted home on a long double by Don Tuchscherer, Bison shortstop. Tuchscherer and Ronnie LaFatta each had a double and a single to lead the Bensenville attack which totaled eight hits.

PALATINE TURNED in one of their best games of the year to blank Ela-Vernon at Lake Zurich Tuesday 1-0. George Ogurek was in rare form allowing only two hits and fanning nine batters. Obenauf of Ela was touched for only three safeties but two came in the fifth to produce the winning run. Stan Hauseman opened with a single, stole second, and came home on a double by Kenneth Rehusch. It was Palatine's seventh victory in nine starts and Ela's third straight defeat.

Palatine Wins 4th Northwest Golf Title

Palatine high school golfers found little opposition as they took their fourth straight Northwest conference championship in a row in the annual tournament Monday at Inverness golf club. Palatine players won all five of the medals for individual low scoring.

"Tinker" Meyer took his third straight gold medal for low score by carding a 76 over the tough Inverness layout.

Meyer had 39 on the front nine but shot an even par 37 on the back nine for his best score on the course in competition.

"Chuck" James won second with an 89. John Goetz got third with a 90 and John Roehr and Pete Abramson shot 92, but Roehr won the fourth place medal in a playoff.

Palatine's team total of 347 was not particularly good but was way ahead of Bensenville's 380, 445 for Grayslake and 466 for Wauconda.

Rendezvous Backs Into First in Roselle Golf

With five weeks gone and only six points separating the top four teams, it looks like a fight to the finish in the Roselle twilight golf league playing at Glendale country club.

By virtue of having the strong motors team holding short handed bankers to two points Monday, Rendezvous Cabin backed into first place.

Two Games This Week

Midwest league opponents of the Arlington Redwings semi-pro baseball team this week-end will be Chicago Zombies, colored, Memorial day, and Rycklik Phillies of Chicago Sunday. Both games will start at 3 p.m. at Recreation park.

Amvets vs C of C In Little League At Wheeling

Weather permitting, the opening game of the 1953 Little League season will be played in Wheeling Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. It is hoped the new field on Amvet property will be ready in time. If not, the game will be played on the school diamond.

In the opening game two local teams will face each other. The Amvets will probably have Teddy Bartman on the mound while the Chamber of Commerce will open with David Zimmerman pitching. Both teams are evenly matched and should provide a good afternoon's entertainment.

Other games will be played Monday and Wednesday of next week. Monday, June 1, the Mt. Prospect Lions meet the Wheeling chamber of commerce at Wheeling while the Wheeling Amvets travel to Mt. Prospect to face the Mt. Prospect Merchants. Wednesday night, June 3, the Wheeling chamber of commerce plays the Mt. Prospect Merchants at Mt. Prospect while the Wheeling Amvets play host to the Mt. Prospect Lions.

Schedules for all games of the Northwest Suburban Little league may be obtained at Welfin's store.

Sports Club Night Shooting Wednesdays

The opening of Wednesday night trap shooting at the Northbrook sports club has been announced by Jules Greiner of Chicago, chairman of the gun committee. Night shooting begins at 7:00 p. m. and closes at 10:00 p. m. Two trap layouts have been scientifically lighted to provide the best night shooting conditions. Night trap shooting is open to the public.

Final golf classes sponsored by Paddock Publications is slated for the next two Thursday nights, May 28 and June 4, at Arlington country club with Dan Taggart pictured above giving instruction to Loretta Kastning of Palatine. The classes have run Thursday nights during May with the final sessions slated to start at 6:30 p. m.

Whitton Realtors Take First in Mt. Prospect Tuesday Golf League

Last week the K. R. Whitton Realtors were tied with two other teams for second place in Mt. Prospect Tuesday Golf league. Now, encouraged by beautiful weather and a finely conditionad course, they are resting easily in first position.

The Whitton team's victims were the bays from Van's gift shop who lost 8½ points and dropped back to ninth place. The George O'Day Realtors tried hard, but could only win 7½ points from Kruse's Schlitzers, so they trail by one point.

Quinnell, an alternate, did very well for himself, scoring birdies on the 11th and 16th holes. Another alternate, Fred Jilek, birdied the 12th hole. Regulars making birdies were: O'Day, LeMay, Kutchera, Meyers, Gerrard and McDowell.

Bob McDonald And Mike Spinello Top Arlington Golf

Hinsdale and Glenbard took top honors in varsity and frosh-soph golf tournaments Monday at Rolling Green country club, with host Arlington finishing fifth in the older division, second in the other.

The Cardinals finished fourth in the overall league championship, which included sum of positions in both round robin play and the tournament.

The Hinsdale foursome of Dick and Bob Bither, Norm Klinders and Jerry Jackson hit 319, six strokes up on LaGrange, and 22 ahead of the hosts.

THE WEATHER was perfect for a day on the links but Arlington couldn't find the range. Bob McDonald, freshman playing with the varsity, was low for Coach Curtis Larsen with 41 out, 39 in, for 80.

Next was Dick Hauff with 86, George Skelton 87, and Bob LeMay and Bob Turner with 88s.

First four low scores were included for tournament purposes. Other Heights efforts included Grant Skelton with 91 and Charles Pedersen with 96.

Low medalist was Dick Bither of Hinsdale with 37-38:75. Second was George Formanek of Downers Grove. Fifty-nine golfers participated in the meet.

DOWNERS GROVE, undefeated in round robin play, finished third in the tournament, just four strokes from a co-championship. Hinsdale had a 6-1 mark in duals, Heights 5-2 for third place.

LaGrange, therefor, knocked Downers from the co-championship by inserting itself between Hinsdale, state finals entrant from the West Suburban league, and Downers.

Par three holes were birdied five times in the varsity division, including Dick Pollenz of Maine and George Formanek of Downers on the 5th; Barry Campbell of Downers and Jim Merrell of Glenbard on the 7th; and Clark Roland of Maine on the 17th.

Forty-one competed in this division with par three holes birdied including: Jim Campbell of Downers, Milton Nelson of Maine and Bob Swats of Hinsdale, all on the 7th hole.

Retains Lead In Mt. Prospect Wednesday Golf League Play

A desperate effort by Barclay-Clearbrook Engineering to dislodge the league-leading Mount Prospect State Bank team from their top position backfired in Wednesday night's play of the Mt. Prospect golf league.

The Engineers turned up for play in natty canary-yellow sport shirts, hand embroidered in chocolate brown, provided by their sponsor, captain, and "A" player, Harry Grimm. Undistracted by this splendor the Bank players kept their collective eyes on the ball and stroked their way to a 7½ to 2½ victory, strengthening their first place advantage to 5 points and shunting the Engineers out of 3rd to a tie for 6th place with Kirchhoff Insurance.

Meanwhile, Hook's Nursery, paced by Len Johnson Jr., swept into 2nd place with a 9½ point near shut-out over Sundberg's Store for Men. Len scored the only birdie of the evening on the long par 5 first hole.

OUTSTANDING feature of the evening was the battle for last place between Mt. Prospect Bowling Lanes and Van Driel's Drugs. The Bowling Lane team, which in the three previous sessions had been held to a grand total of 5 points, scored a sensational 8 points to move into 11th place, giving Van Driel's undisputed possession of the cellar. Captain Harry "Beast" Ball of the Bowling Lanes team was observed smiling for the first time this season.

Arlington Heights trackmen led six other West Suburban schools in the conference track meet Wednesday of last week at Riverside, just behind heavily favored and state champ LaGrange.

The Cardinals scored 35 points, 11 ahead of both York and Maine. LaGrange had 64 for another league title.

In the frosh-soph division Heights was next to last with 14 points, a safe margin ahead of Riverside-Brookfield's loner. LaGrange also won this division with 47 points, 13 ahead of Maine.

AS EXPECTED Dick Winterbauer took both shot and discus for Arlington, though he took the former event on the final put.

Dick's best effort the first six tosses was 49'. With four other boys tossing the weight 50' and 51', Dick had to rally on the final throw to put the shot 52' for first place.

Dick was also below par in the discus when he tossed the platter 145'-5". The mark was good enough, though, to assure Coach Russ Attis another five points.

JIM ROBERTS took two seconds for Heights, a good distance behind McKown of LaGrange in the 100, which went :10.2; and less than a foot behind Morehead of Hinsdale in the 220, which went :23.5.

Only other second for the locals was in the 880 relay, which LaGrange took in 1:32.4.

Carroll Werner finished third in the broad jump, McAuliffe tied for fifth in the high jump (6'-1" won it), and Ellis ranked fifth in the high hurdles, won by Harold Caffey of LaGrange in :15.3.

Heights Nine Beats Glenbard

Cardinal varsity nine of Arlington Heights high school defeated Glenbard Monday afternoon, 5-1, with Brumm going all the way on the mound, giving up five hits, walking two and fanning eight.

"They look like a good ball club," stated Coach Ray DeGreeff. "Experience has paid off. If the season were just starting we could be a contender."

THOMPSON once again led off with a single, then stole second. Eakins fanned but Sieburg walked. Hesch doubled, scoring both Thompson and Sieburg. Lemke walked but to no avail.

The Cardinals added another tally in the third frame when Sieburg was on base on an error, stole second, went to third on a passed ball, and stole home.

A triple by Dotts and passed ball accounted for run number four in the fourth.

LEMKE SINGLED in the sixth, stole second, went to third on Dotts' fly, and scored on a passed ball for the final Heights score.

Glenbard finally made the grade in the seventh on a single, wild throw and another single. Arlington made just six hits, one more than the losers.

Batting averages through Monday's game find Verret hitting .285 on 12 hits in 42 times at the plate. Hesch is batting .277, Lemke .263.

In pitching Brumm has the best won-lost record, 3-1, but Shanklin has twirled the most, 40 innings while permitting 31 safeties.

Bears Sign Huge Tennesse Tackle

Another mammoth tackle, Jim Caldwell of Tennessee A & I, was added to the Chicago Bears line Saturday as owner George Halas continues his accent on youth movement in rebuilding his team.

Caldwell is a tremendous buster—six feet three inches tall, weighing 249. That he can get around is shown by the fact that he can do the hundred in 10.6. That he knows his way around on the gridiron is shown by the fact that he was named to the All-Midwestern last season.

Arlington's golfers have concluded their season with a very good record in duals but nothing to wire home about in conference and district play, as seen before the season started. Early season marks made some fans over optimistic, but the high school golfers were unable to maintain the pace in the crucial matches. At that the Cardinals finished fourth in league standings.

Arlington Golfers Beat Niles, Glenbard

Arlington Heights high school golfers beat Niles and Glenbard last week, trimming the Trojans Wednesday, 8-7, and walloping the Bards, 13½ to 1½. The Niles affair was played at Evanston country club and the Glenbard contest at Rolling Green.

Low for Arlington against Niles was George Skelton with 73 for three points. Second was Bob McDonald with 79 for 2½ points. Low man for Coach Curtis Larsen against Glenbard was Dick Hauff with 75 for three points and Bob LeMay with 87 for three points.

Palatine Drubs Ela-Vernon, 6-2

Palatine kept their championship hope alive in baseball by beating Ela-Vernon 6-2 on their home grounds, Ost Field, last Thursday afternoon. George Ogurek who could not get the side out in the first inning at Bensenville on Tuesday came back against Ela with a steady performance in which he allowed one of the best hitting teams in the circuit only five safe blows.

Prouty started on the mound for Ela but lasted only two and one third frames being replaced by Obenauf who shut out the Pirates the rest of the way.

The Pirates scored twice in the second inning when after two were out Hauseman tripled, Kolze and Meyer drew passes and Ed Hartman's single drove in two tallies. In the third Rehusch singled, Hauseman walked, and Dick Abrahamson hit a homer past the left fielder which went into the stairway leading to the new addition cafeteria. The same inning Ogurek walked, Meyer walked, and Ed Hartman drove in Ogurek with a single.

ELA SCORED in the fifth on two errors and a single by Halvorson. In the seventh they got another tally when Bettis got a base on balls and Uutala and Chaffin followed with singles.

Ogurek fanned 11 batters and walked three. Hauseman, Rehusch, and Hartman each got two hits for Palatine. Meyer, Schrage, Abrahamson, and Kolze each had one hit. For Ela Halvorson, Uutala, Chaffin, Anderson, and Busch each got one hit. Bettis scored both of Ela's runs.

Card Frosh Nine Drubs Niles, 11-1

Coach Maurice Klotz and his freshmen baseballers of Arlington Heights showed no respect for Niles Monday afternoon on the local diamond, 11-1.

The Cardinal yearlings tallied once the second inning, six times in the fifth, and four in the sixth.

It marked the third victory for the frosh against two losses this year.

GREEN SINGLED, went to second on a balk, third on an error, and scored on an infield fly for the loner in the second inning.

The big fifth: Summers reached second on an error, Smeby walked, a passed ball put Wilde on base, Stocking singled, Ebert was safe on a fielder's choice, Brumm was hit by a pitched ball, Getts, Summers and Sujack reached base on errors, the latter being run down on the baselines for the third out.

In the sixth Smeby was hit by a pitched ball, Stocking singled, Ebert and Brumm walked, plus a wild pitch for the final four runs.

Herb Parsong, Gun Handler, In Exhibition At Fieldale Sunday

Herb Parsons, one of the fastest and most entertaining gun handlers in the country, will give a free shooting exhibition at Fieldale, Marshall Field and Company public shooting range Sunday, May 31, at 2:30 p.m.

One example of Parsons' outstanding marksmanship is to bag a tiny parachute 700 feet in the air with a high powered rifle loaded with tracer ammunition. In another shot, Parsons tosses a 2¼-inch hard maple block into the air, cracks the block and splinters the pieces with four bullets in an average of three seconds. These, and many more amazing shots, will be part of his program at Fieldale.

At the close of his exhibition, Parsons will assist members of the audience with any shooting problems, answer any questions relating to the sport, and will supply information on all types of shooting.

Fieldale is located on Higgins rd., route 72, about a mile west of the intersection with Golf rd., highway 58. The shooting range is open to the public and Parsons' exhibition May 31 is free.

Grayslake Kills Ela Hopes for Title, 5-4

Grayslake climbed out of the conference cellar and dashed cold water on any hopes Ela-Vernon may have had for getting back into the championship race by whipping the Bears Monday, 5-4. Grayslake got only four hits off Prouty, Halvorsen, and Obenauf who shared mound duties for Ela but errors contributed to their downfall. Grayslake got three runs in the first frame and one in the second after Ela tied the score in the top of the seventh the Rams put over the winning run. It was Grayslake's second league victory and Ela's third setback.

Palatine Divides Golf Squad Into Three But Defeats Three Schools

Palatine took three onesided golf matches last week beating Bensenville 17½ to ½, Antioch 14½ to 3½, and Grayslake 13 to 5. A different lineup was used in each of the matches and Meyer, number one Pirate golfer, appeared only against Bensenville, shooting an 83, which was above his season average of 80.

Heights Golfers Beat LaGrange, Riverside

Arlington Heights high school golfers were double winners Friday at LaGrange country club when LaGrange bowed, 11-4, and Riverside-Brookfield fell, 13½-1½. Coach Larsen's frosh-sophs also won, 7-2 and 8½-½.

Against LaGrange Dick Hauff was low man with an 81 for two points. Bob McDonald carded an 82, also for two points. George Skelton and Bob LeMay both whitewashed their opponents with 84s.

The same scores were used by Heights in the match against Riverside on the same course. Hauff took 1½ points, the other four three points apiece.

Geo. Skelton A 84 beat DeSantis L 90, 3-0, and Conforti R 92, 3-0.

LeMay A 84 beat Toates L 93, 3-0, and Swiatek R 99, 3-0.

Stenzel Sets New :21.6 Mark In Low Hurdles

TABLE OF POINTS

Palatine	78 9/20	Bensenville	21 3/5
Wauconda	33¼	Ela	21½
Grayslake	25 17/20	Grant	5
Antioch	24 7/20

Palatine won eight first places and placed two men in all but one event as they ran away from the field in the 15th annual Northwest conference track and field meet held on Ost Field last Wednesday night. The Pirates scored 78 9/20 points with Wauconda in second place having 33¼. Grayslake scored 25 17/20, Antioch 24 7/20, Bensenville 21 3/5, Ela-Vernon 21½, and Grant 5.

It was Palatine's sixth straight Northwest track championship and their ninth in the 15 years since the league was reorganized in 1938.

ONLY ONE RECORD was set and that was by Norman Stenzel, Palatine's star hurdler, who ran the 180 yard lows in :21.6 to crack the mark of 21.8 set by Burton Nesset of Palatine in last year's meet. The Palatine timber topper, who was just nosed out of getting in the finals in his specialties down at Champaign at the state meet last week, was the Pirates' top scorer as he won both hurdles and took third in the broad jump. His time in the highs was :16 run against a strong southwest wind. Stenzel is a junior with another year of competition.

Other Palatine first places were won by Alan Sommerfield who broad jumped 19' 2¼", Jim Hess who won the 220 in :23.5, Charley Hartmann who vaulted 10' 6", and Alan Eck with a fine mark of :54.3 in the 440. The medley relay team of Allan Mackie, Dave Cornwell, and Victor Marsiglia won their event easily. The fine time of 1:38.4 was made by a freshman, two sophs and a senior in the 880 relay with the runners Dave Cornwell, Alan Sommerfield, Alan Eck, and Jim Hess. The marks made by Jim Hess in the 220 and Alan Eck in the 440 were particularly outstanding in as much as Hess is a freshman and Eck a sophomore.

BENSENVILLE won no first places but showed a great improvement over the past two years and Cuatrecasas got second in the pole vault, Walsh second in the discus, and Kauffman second in the mile run.

Charles Bock of Antioch was a double winner with victories in both the weight events. Dan Gudgeon repeated last year's win in the 100 yard dash, but both Hess of Palatine and Miller of Grayslake forged past him in the final stages of the 220 yard dash and he had to be content with third in an event he won a year ago.

Two Big Ten Marks May Fall In Meet

Two Big Ten outdoor track records may be equalled or bettered when Western conference performers gather May 29 and 30 in Memorial Stadium for the 53rd annual championships, but competitors in other events probably will vie only for points.

The marks endangered are in the 120-yard high hurdles and high jump, both of which are among the older records in Big Ten books. Bob Osgood of Michigan set the high timber standard of :14.0 in 1937 and Dave Albritton the high jump mark of 6 feet 7¼ inches in 1938.

JOEL McNULTY of Illinois, who with teammate Willard Thomson, stands out among current hurdlers in the conference, is the threat to Osgood's record. McNulty has hit :14.0 once this season and several times has been caught in :14.1.

Given good weather, the former Peoria (Woodruff) star, might set a new record in his final race over the Memorial Stadium track. He will be graduated in June.

Milt Mead, Michigan's elongated basketball player, who tied for the high jump crown last spring, has shown form this year since deserting the court that indicates he could exceed Albritton's mark.

LAST WEEK in a dual meet with Illinois Mead cleared 6 feet 8¼ inches for the first time in his career and will be set to duplicate or better that performance May 30.

There is, of course, possibility that Stacey Siders, great Illini half-miler could break his own mark of 1:51.2 set last year at Ann Arbor, but Coach Leo Johnson doubts that anyone in the field will set a fast enough pace to pull Siders out for a record effort.

"Siders doesn't like to set the pace and unless someone goes all out in the first quarter, Stacey isn't likely to beat his record. Last year he had Henry Cryer, a front runner, to pace him and Cryer had a lot to do with setting the mark."

State High School Baseball In Finals

Finals in the state baseball tournament being played Thursday and Friday, May 28 and 29, at Peoria include the following pairings:

Bloomington vs. Waukegan, Thursday, 1:30.

Chicago Vocational vs. Pekin Thursday, 3:30.

Murphysboro vs. Decatur Thursday, 7:00

Edwardsville vs. Maywood Thursday, 9:00.

Thursday afternoon winners meet Friday afternoon at 1:00.

Thursday evening winners meet Friday afternoon at 3:00.

There were 317 downstate and 43 Chicago schools entered in this year's tournament. Morton, 1952 champion, was eliminated in district competition.

Card Soph Nine Has Big Innings To Beat Hinsdale

Two big innings were all the Arlington Heights high school sophomore baseball team needed to beat Hinsdale Wednesday of last week, 10-5. The local yearlings scored four the first inning, and five the sixth, plus one in the fourth for the victory.

Walks to Maher and Laughlin, singles by Lynk and Riggs and a fumble brought in the four scores the opening frame for Coach "Bus" Ormsbee's boys. An error, single and fielder's choice brought in one for the losers the same inning.

THREE STRAIGHT singles in the fourth by Laughlin, Sauter and Lynk made the score 5-1. A walk and a single made it 5-2 in Hinsdale's half of the inning.

A single, walk and single gave the losers another tally in the fifth, until the roof fell in on the young Red Devils in the sixth frame.

Fischer started things for the young Cardinals by singling, then stole second. Maher walked and Laughlin singled after a double steal, scoring both Fischer and Maher.

LYNK SINGLED, putting men on second and third when Dick France homered for the other three runs. Three singles brought in two more for Hinsdale in their half of the seventh, and the game was over.

On the mound for Arlington was Charles, who went all the way. He struck out seven, walked three, and permitted seven hits. Olson pitched for Hinsdale until the sixth when Eccles took over. Between them they struck out two, walked four, and allowed 14 hits.

Stock Car Races At Soldier Field

One of the leading sports attractions in Chicago over the Memorial day week-end will be the stock car races in Soldier Field Sunday night where the nation's leading quarter-mile auto race track presents a full program of sprints, a forward-backup event, a semifinal and then as a dual feature windup the demolition derby, known as the Australian tag and the 25 lap main event with 24 qualifiers lining up for an inverted start.

Bill Moore of Mundelein, who rolled over on two occasions during the events last Sunday at almost the identical spot on the track, will have himself and his car ready for the week-end events.

With the first of the race events scheduled for 8:30 p.m. starter Art Kelly and announcer "Chuck" Teeple will get the qualifying laps under way at 6:30 p.m.

Arlington's sophomore nine took a 9-3 pasting from Niles Monday. The loss was the second of the year for Coach Ormsbee's boys against six victories. The schedule is over for the sophomores, except for a game with Palatine Thursday.

Heights scored in the first inning on a walk and stolen base by Laughlin and an error. The locals tallied their other two runs in the sixth on a double by Sauter, hit batsman Riggs), walk to France and a single by Fletcher.

Niles scored four runs in the second on an error, hit batsman, single, another error, walk and a triple. They tallied the other five in the sixth on a walk and five singles.

Twirling for the Cardinal and White was Winkelmann.

York Edges Hinsdale In League Tennis

York high school swept all three singles finals and won the second division doubles match to score 43 points and capture the West Suburban conference varsity tennis championship at Riverside-Brookfield Wednesday. In the frosh-soph division, La Grange triumphed with 47 points, while Hinsdale finished second with 40.

Arlington efforts in the tournament included one man, Ray Birkholz, winning one match when he outpointed Rogeness of Riverside-Brookfield, 6-4 and 14-12 in a set that appeared to never end.

Ray then lost to Low of Hinsdale, 8-6 and 6-1, to be eliminated from competition on the 22 courts of Riverside and LaGrange filled with West Suburban players.

OVERALL PLAY, both during the year in duals and tournament, find Arlington tied with Downers Grove for seventh place, both with five matches won.

This is the same number of points garnered last year for Coach Ken Schaller's netmen. The frosh-sophs again failed to win a solitary match during the year.

York and Hinsdale varsities had been tied in dual competition going into the tournament last week.

In the doubles Tom Livingston and Ron Hutchinson lost to Low and Reynolds of Hinsdale, 6-0, 6-0, who lost to Glenbard in the finals. Bud Sherrill and Doug Morrissey lost to Bill Vaughan and Bob Hansen of LaGrange, 6-1 6-0.

Complete details on the frosh-soph division were not available.

Resolution Asks Race Tracks Pay County For Inspection Services

A resolution asking that the Maywood, Arlington Park and Washington Park race tracks be charged a daily fee during their meeting dates for inspection services and police protection provided by the county, was introduced to the board of county commissioners Wednesday by Commissioner Christ A. Jensen.

The board referred the resolution to its legislative committee for study. It is pointed out in the resolution that the county must provide inspection services for housing and sanitary facilities for track employees and horse owners and that extra county policemen must be employed to handle traffic during the days the tracks are in operation.

The resolution proposes the tracks be assessed a fee for every day the track is open plus five days before and after opening and closing dates.

Sports Club Movies

At the regular monthly meeting to be held Tuesday, June 2, the Northbrook sports club will devote its entire program to the instruction of new shooters, starting at 8 p.m. followed by an interesting pair of color sound movie films.

The first film, 26 minutes long, is entitled "Shooting Safety." It will be followed by "The Making of A Shooter." Both films demonstrate the basic rules of gun handling and proper instructions for new shooters.

The Northbrook sports club is located at the corner of County Line rd. and Pfingsten rd., directly northwest of Northbrook. It is approximately one half mile north of Sky Harbor Airport.

Adler Park Fund

The David Adler Memorial Park Association last week launched its 1953 financial campaign in Libertyville with a goal of $25,000 to be used for operating expenses and capital improvements at the park.

Farmers Sign For Conservation Contest Here

We know there are good farmers in this area. This contest is held for you—

Any farmer in the North Cook county area is qualified to compete in the "Save your Soil for Illinois" contest being conducted by the state department of agriculture and the local soil conservation district, according to Emil Hattendorf, Hanover township, Elgin, and chairman of the North Cook county soil conservation district.

Through participation, North Cook county will recognize the accomplishments of farm operators practicing good soil conservation. This does not mean you have to be a cooperator of the North Cook county soil conservation district to enter.

ENTRIES WILL BE judged according to:

1. Farm plan. (Your own plan —the one you follow each year to improve your farm.)
2. Progress made in conservation practices. (Again — have you improved your rotation, your pastures, waterways, your yields, without depleting your soils?)
3. Neatness and general appearance of the farm—the buildings, fences, woodlot or ditch—if you have either. In general—are you doing a good job of farming?

For more information on this contest contact any of the following: Emil Hattendorf, R. 1, Box 263, Elgin; Elmer Wente, Mtd. R. 2, Palatine; Xaver Schmid, R. 2, Box 69, Palatine; Arnold Brockmann, R. 3, Box 148, Palatine; Wilmer Rohlwing, R. 1, Box 124, Palatine; or M. Umbdenstock, farm planner; or Carl F. Mees, farm adviser, farm bureau office, Arlington Heights.

Warnimonts Plan New Building For Mill And Hatchery

Plans are now being completed to break ground within the next thirty days for a new structure to be located on rte. 20 about one quarter mile west of Bloomindale to house both the Warnimont Farm Supply Co. and the White Lane Hatchery of Roselle.

The present set up with the stores located about a mile apart does not permit the full utilization of the facilities according to Mr. Warnimont and does not serve the trade as the new modern mill and hatchery will.

The County board at its May 12 meeting approved the rezoning of 350 feet of Lake st. frontage on the twelve acre tract which was purchased for the new building and demonstration farm. The mill portion of the new structure when completed will have the very latest custom grinding and mixing machinery together with modern labor saving devices for the handling of grains and ingredients.

The present garden seed and supply section of the Roselle rd. store will be greatly expanded in the new location to give the ever increasing number of home owners in this area a large selection of garden and lawn supplies and equipment, together with the proper cultural information.

Ranges Reaching Point Where They Do All But Take Orders

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

The kitchen is one place where time can be saved—and where the humdrum job of preparing three meals every day can be made more enjoyable. These are the goals range manufacturers have been working toward for years.

Take electric ranges, for example. They have blossomed out this year with a host of new mechanical and electronic marvels which make cooking fun and more time releasing than ever before. This is good news to all women, but especially to farm women. Many farm wives are over-worked. Anything which can help them do any job faster, easier and with more pleasure is most welcome.

A glance at some of the new electric ranges shows that they have enough time and labor savers, and "built-in" cooking adventure to bring many a curious male into the kitchen to try his hand with skillet and oven. Here, from mere man's standpoint, are some of these new features—not necessarily in the order of their importance, but simply as news for the housewife:

Built-in, thermostatically controlled, plug-in French-fryer unit that operates in conjunction with a deep well cooker. Divided ovens (top and bottom) with two separate heat controls to make possible the feat of baking in one half and broiling in the other.

An electronic eye for a surface unit that prevents heat from going beyond marked cooking zones for frying, boiling or warming. Even if pans boil dry, this device prevents foods from burning.

DOUBLE OVENS—one feature of new time and labor-saving ranges.

Ovens which stretch across the full width of 30-inch ranges making them large enough to bake 10 loaves of bread at one time. A built-in barbecue attachment for the oven which has its own motor and is self-turning and self-basting. And, double-oven ranges with each oven complete in itself for baking or broiling individually or at the same time.

In addition, energy inputs of units have been stepped up to increase cooking efficiencies, and such helpful devices as oven timers, warming drawers, oven lights and others, have been retained. What the future holds for more improvements is anybody's guess. But if it's anything like the present, it's going to be mighty hard spending much time working in the kitchen.

LAW on the FARM

Abstracts

Prospective buyers of farm land need to know at least two important things: the true value of the land in terms of productivity, and the state of the title. Information about the title can be gained only through a summary of the essential facts contained in all conveyances or encumbrances that in any way affect the land. An abstract is such a summary. In Illinois, abstracts are prepared by private companies which make a charge for their services.

In the preparation of an abstract, a search must be made through records in the offices of the county recorder, county clerk and circuit clerk. Each instrument of record, whether a deed, mortgage, release, divorce decree or other document, is carefully abstracted for essential facts, numbered and placed chronologically with other summaries. When all such records have been summarized and arranged, they are stapled together. The document is called an abstract.

CONTRARY TO BELIEF OF many people, an abstract is not a guarantee of good title. It is simply a record of what has legally affected the property. An abstract may disclose that the title is very insecure. One of the benefits of such a document is that weaknesses are disclosed and the purchaser is given an opportunity to have defects removed to pass judgment on the facts that have been abstracted and capable of discerning the absence of necessary facts. Such persons are generally lawyers who have had a great deal of experience in preparing and examining real estate documents.

REGARDLESS of how sound a buyer may consider the title to be, it is good business for him to procure an up-to-date abstract from a reliable company and have it examined by an experienced person. He may give himself still further protection by purchasing a title guaranty policy.

Forest Park Leads in Slot Machine Stamps

Forest Park held on to its dubious distinction of leading all Cook county in federal slot machine stamps, with Chicago in the lead in federal wagering stamps as a list of latest sales was disclosed by Ernest J. Sauber, district director of internal revenue.

In wagering stamp sales, Blue Island is second with 49, followed by Forest Park 45, Franklin Park 22, Robbins 20, Cicero 19, Schiller Park, 11, Lyons 10, and Chicago Heights, 8, the other leaders.

Chicago and Calumet City are tied for second with 25 each in slot stamps, followed by Schiller Park 9, Chicago Heights 9. Norwood Park 8, Harvey 8, Des Plaines 7, Franklin Park 7, Blue Island 6, Cicero 5, Berwyn 5, Lyons 5, and Argo 3, the other leaders.

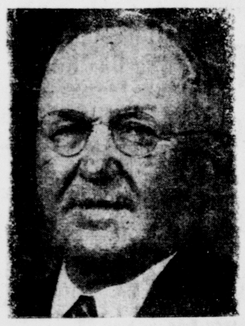

Following are slot stamps buyers at $250.

Daniel I. Taggart, proprietor, Arlington C Club, box 414, Arlington Heights; Russell Ruh and Charles Kehm, partners, Dempster golf club, 8650 Milwaukee ave., Niles Charles A. Nash, proprietor Mission Hills golf course, Techny and Sanders rds. Northbrook.

Wheat Acreage Allotments May Be Necessary

All wheat growers are advised that it is possible, although not yet definitely determined, that it may be necessary to have wheat acreage allotments and marketing quotas for the 1954 crop, according to word from Carl M. Bormet. chairman of the local PMA committee. This results. he said. from the fact that the wheat situation in this nation has reached a rather critical point.

In order to be ready for this possibility. the PMA office must secure data for all farms on which wheat was seeded for harvest or use in any of the years 1951, 1952, and 1953. Mr. Bormet explained that selected reporters are calling on all known wheat farmers to collect the required information To all other owners and operators a letter is being sent asking that they furnish the data by mail.

ANY FARMER who isn't contacted personally by a PMA reporter or hasn't received a letter from the county committee should on his own initiative make certain that a report on his recent wheat acreages is turned in. He may contact his local reporter, send the information by mail, or call at the county office. A full and complete record of wheat production is essential not only for the farmer concerned so that each will receive his fair allotment, but also to make certain that the county receives its full share of the State allotment.

This is a big task, said Mr. Bormet, which must be accomplished immediately and we need the cooperation of each and every wheat producer.

Although secretary Benson has stated he will make no final decision on 1954 wheat controls until the latest information is available, it is, nevertheless essential that full and complete acreage data be secured immediately, the county committeeman added.

Sudan Makes Fine Pasture For Midsummer

Sudan grass can supply succulent forage during July and August when other pastures are dry and unproductie.

Leo Fryman, extension dairy specialist at the Illinois college of agriculture, says one acre of good Sudan grass will carry about two cows through the hot summer months. That's about twice the grazing capacity of most pastures at that time of year.

One good system for summer pastures, Fryman says, is to follow rye with Sudan grass on the same field. Best time to sow Sudan grass is the last of May, just at the time you will usually be plowing up your rye.

SOW SUDAN grass at the rate of 25 to 35 pounds an acre. For best yields, fertilize the field well with manure before planting or put on needed commercial fertilizer at seeding time.

Guard against prussic acid poisoning by not pasturing Sudan grass until it is at least 18 inches high. Be sure to move the stock when the grass is eaten down to about 12 inches. Fryman strongly recommends rotation grazing for Sudan grass.

YOU CAN SEED soybeans with Sudan grass to increase the yield and feed varue of the crop and to protect the grass from close grazing. Soybeans are also resistant to chinch bugs, while Sudan grass is not.

Sow 1½ bushels of soybeans alone or as a mixture with the usual amount of Sudan grass seed, using a grain drill. Inoculate the beans before planting.

Elmer Linneweh will hold a furniture and household auction Sunday, June 14, in Schaumburg. Complete listing June 4 issue.

Auction Sale Every Friday

of all classes of livestock, dairy cows, dairy heifers, dairy bulls, veal calves, feeder cattle of all kinds. W. F. cows and short horned cows good for grazing on grass and a large part of them will have calves.

W. F. heifers and S. H. heifers weighing from 300 to 600 lbs.
W. F. steers weighing from 300 to 700 lbs.
S. H. steers weighing from 300 to 500 lbs.

We are receiving a large number of this class of cattle at this present time. It looks like it would be a good time to buy, if you have grass to put some cattle on.

Attention Farmers and Dealers. We will hold a special dairy cow and dairy heifer sale, on Tuesday night, June 2, at 7:30 DST. Anyone desiring to buy dairy cows or dairy heifers we invite to this sale.

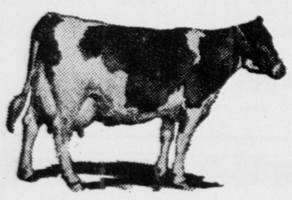

If you have dairy cows or dairy heifers to sell, we invite your consignment to this special dairy cow and dairy heifer sale. This will be a consignment sale of dairy cows and dairy heifers only. We will not sell anything but dairy cows and dairy heifers at this sale.

We will still hold our regular auction every Friday. We invite you to either auction at either time. We have a modern restaurant that is open 24 hours a day Monday through Saturday that is open to the public.

WASHINGTON AND
"SMALL BUSINESS"
By C. WILSON HARDER

Another great Prime Minister of England, Disraeli, once said, "Lather a man before you shave him." There is a great deal of evidence that this advice has remained as British policy.

C. W. Harder

In Canada, United States money is being discounted. This condition is even reflected in the cost of newsprint.

In the meantime, in the new Congress, members of the majority party cannot decide among themselves on the merits of scrapping controls, reducing taxes. Despite ample evidence government controls, plus high taxes, have done great injury to the progress of independent business.

Before the election, there was strong agreement that control, high taxes should end now.

Then the British Prime Minister arrives in this nation, has secret conferences.

It may be sheer coincidence, but immediately after these visits, some leaders of the majority party in Congress express themselves that perhaps too much haste should not be exercised in cutting taxes, ending controls.

There are also these facts.

* * *

Although the United Kingdom is receiving half of the aid given Europe, supposedly as a measure to help in the common defense, with Russia supposedly the nation that defense against is needed, British business with Russia is increasing.

In 1952 Britain exported manufactured goods worth $10 million to Russia, and in the first ten months of the year, British exports of rubber to Russia amounted to $84.5 million versus only $5 million in 1950.

Now it is understood that Britain will sell even more rubber to Russia directly through London, instead of through Singapore.

In the meantime, MSA continues to ship scarce materials to the United Kingdom. MSA Bulletin No. 215 reports on a recent day that copper bought in Canada was given to the U. K.

But in Canada, the American dollar is now being discounted.

This action was taken just a short time after the National Production Authority virtually put out of business a small independent packer of dog foods in San Francisco because it had used more tin to meet the demand for the company products than NPA had allocated.

* * *

Today, in Washington there is wavering, even among those who were the loudest opponents of controls, of high taxes, other evils.

* * *

It doesn't seem possible that a visit from an elderly politician from England could cause this wavering. In Washington there is a strong sentiment for appointment of a committee to investigate and reveal the extent of foreign influence in government in much the same way that the Communist plans in in America are being exposed.

Vegetable Queen To Be Selected; Deadline Near

This is the last week to submit entries for vegetable queen of the Chicago vegetable area according to an announcement made this week by Elmer J. Steil, assistant secretary of the Cook county Truck Gardeners & Farmers association and a treasurer of the Vegetable Growers association of America.

A vegetable queen is chosen from all vegetable areas in the country each year. The local queen is then a candidate for vegetable queen from her state and finally, from among the state queens, a national vegetable queen is chosen.

MR. STEIL stated the qualifications for vegetable queen are that a girl must be between the ages of 17 and 24, single, and the daughter of a vegetable grower. The selection will be based on points for appearance, poise, achievements and accomplishments.

Anyone who knows of some girl who can qualify for this honor should submit two 5" x 7" full length pictures of the candidate and a letter stating her achievements and accomplishments. These should be submitted to the office of the Cook County Truck Gardeners and Farmers Ass'n., in Des Plaines, Illinois.

THE LOCAL QUEEN will be selected early next week and her pictures and qualifications will be submitted to the Illinois state vegetable growers association who will select a state queen.

The queen from Illinois will then be sent to the annual convention of the vegetable growers at St. Louis, Mo., in December where the national queen will be selected and will reign at the convention.

The local queen will no doubt be feted on radio and television programs during national vegetable week in August. Carol Jean Wille of Elk Grove township was chosen local and state of Illinois queen in 1952.

Pick Blossoms Off Newly Set Strawberries

Pick blossoms off your newly set June bearing varities of strawberries. A. S. Colby, small fruits specialist at the Illinois college of agriculture, says that removing the blossoms the first season lets the plants grow larger and develop more runners. The result is more blossoms and more strawberries next spring.

If you plant ever-bearing varieties, you will need to remove blossoms only until midsummer. You can let later blossoms stay on the plants to produce fruit the first season.

Tests at the United States Department of Agriculture have shown that hand picking is more effective than trying to do this job with sprays, Colby points out.

Scientists at the USDA tried 2, 4-D, 2, 4, 5-TP and TIB in the form of sprays for taking the blossoms off strawberries. None of the sprays were successful, but hand picking seemed to stimulate the plants to more growth.

In one test with U.S. hybird 3919 variety about two months after the spraying and hand picking, plants from which the blossoms of about 20 runners each. Sprayed plants in the same bed had about one runner or none, and check plants that had been neither sprayed nor hand-picked average 3.3 runners.

Removing the blossoms is one of the most important things you can do to give your strawberry plants a good start. Other research has shown that strawberry plants set out as soon as the ground can be worked in the spring will put out more runners and that those runners will produce more berries the following spring than will runners from plants set out later.

Added Threat

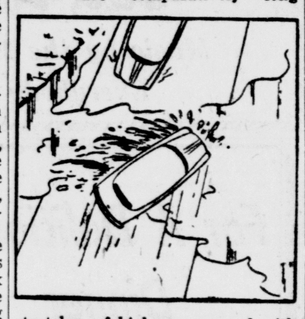

Leptospirosis, mainly a threat to cattle, can also become a problem in sheep and swine.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

"Lakes" on highways are danger zones. Particularly in the spring, but also at other times of the year following heavy rains, some sections of highways become flooded before the ground has a chance to absorb the rainfall.

The result is that frequently there are comparatively long stretches of highway covered with water to a depth of two or three inches. Watch for those areas, and decrease your speed before you reach one of them.

Driving into such an area at high speed puts a sudden drag on your car and may cause you to lose control completely. Almost before you realize it, your car may be hurtling into a ditch or careening wildly across the highway into approaching traffic. Slow down first, and you will be safe.

Home Building Often Harms Beautiful Trees

Thousands of prospective home owners this Spring will choose building sites adorned with beautiful trees although many of these trees will be badly damaged or killed later during the construction work.

Few home builders realize it in advance, but here's what frequently happens.

Limbs and bark are torn and roots are cut by excavating and construction equipment. Careless workers burn scrap lumber and other waste near trees, which are injured by flames and excess heat.

Piles of earth, wood or bricks are dumped where they cover the root system cutting off the tree's rain supply for weeks or months at a time. Tar, lime, plaster, chemicals and other injurious materials are spilled in the feeding area. To top it off, lawn fills, concrete walks and drives often shut off water and air from the roots beneath. Death frequently results.

Through carelessness and construction hazards, the home owner frequently sees his leafy assets become liabilities. Property values fall when ornamental trees are ruined. Beauty spots become eyesores.

Tells of Sewer Flaws In Barrington, Like Here

Looking to changes and improvements in Barrington's sewer system to reduce complaints of water in basements, flooded streets, and other evident inadequacies the village board heard a report Monday night from Trustee John H. D. Blanke chairman of the committee on sewers in which Mr. Blanke suggested more rigid enforcement of the ordinance requiring that downspouts be disconnected, complete separation of storm and sanitary sewers, some intercepting sewers to relieve pressures, and other remedial measures. A copy of the report will be furnished board members and the engineers for study.

Keep Farm Shop Orderly For Safety

Good lighting, order, safe tools and equipment make your farm shop work much easier and safer, says John W. Matthews, executive secretary of the Illinois Rural safety council. Get your shop ready for the busy work season ahead so that it will take you the least possible time to make repairs in an emergency, Matthews suggests. Root out accident hazards and inconveninent work areas.

Clean up the benches, storage cabinets and work areas so that they will not be cluttered. See that dangerous corners and work areas are well lighted so that you can see to do your work. Then be careful and work safely.

IT'S A GOOD IDEA not to store loose materials on the rafters overhead, Matthews believes. Vibrations can sometimes shake such materials down. Keep all your tools in a safe place and in good operating condition. To avoid dangerous accumulation of harmful fumes, ventilate your shop well whenever you work in it.

Don't let greasy or oily rags pile up in a corner. They can easiy cause spontaneous combustion and a dangerous fire. It's a good idea to have a fire extinguisher or some other means of putting out small fires if they should get started.

Use and store flammable materials safely. To reduce the chance of fire, look for and correct any defective wiring or electdry and productive.

Release Changes in 'Music by The Lake' Series in Wisconsin

All the great artists originally scheduled for the eight concerts of the summer music association at College camp on Geneva Lake, Wis., will appear this summer but in different order. Mischa Elman, distinguished violinist, originally planned for August 9 will appear Sunday evening, July 19, following the opening concert Sunday evening, July 12 by the brilliant Philharmonic piano quartet.

Igor Gorin, famous baritone of the Metropolitan opera, originally scheduled for the closing concert of the season August 30, has now been moved to July 26 because he will be engaged in Hollywood on a new movie for most of August and part of September.

For Wednesday evening, July 23, between Elman and Gorin, "Music By the Lake" has been fortunate in securing a "Bonus Concert" at 8 p. m. CST by the Moline boys choir, under the direction of Frederick Swanson.

Sunday evening, August 2 Rudolph Reiners will conduct the Chicago symphony string ensemble. One of the great numbers on their program will be the famous Dohnanyi Quintet for Piano and Strings which they perform superlatively.

Sunday evening, August 9, Robert McDowell, talented young pianist, will present an interesting program of music by Scarlatti, Beethoven, Chopin, Tcherepnine, Ravel, Granados and Liszt.

Saturday evening, August 15, at 8 p. m. CST the famous "John Halloran Choralists" of twenty-four voices, with John Halloran, director, will present a concert.

Last concert of the season, Sunday evening, August 30, will present the beautiful voice of Dorothy Maynor. She was honored by the invitation to sing at the inauguration of President Eisenhower. Critics have said: "That curious but unmistakable hush which only the greatest can evoke settles over her listeners whenever Miss Maynor sings."

Remember that our six Sunday evening concerts begin at 7:15 CST to benefit those of our neighbors who are on Daylight Saving Time. The two choral concerts begin at eight.

Admission is by season membership for $8.00. Checks can be sent direct to the summer music association, College camp, Wisconsin.

Predicts More Americans In Europe This Year Than Ever Before

Chas. M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club, predicted a 15 per cent rise in foreign travel for 1953.

Hayes pointed out that there are several contributing causes for this:

World War II brought Europe closer to millions of people who served there, or who had relatives stationed there. It made it a familiar everyday place to the great mass of the American public.

The post-war period has seen a 30 per cent increase in persons receiving vacation-with-pay, thus increasing the general field of prospective travelers.

LOW "OFF-SEASON" rates abroad and new tourist air fares which alone account for a 50 per cent increase in foreign travel.

This revolution in travel, Hayes said, is not merely a post-war boom, but a definite pattern in tourism that is here to stay.

A total of 812,644 U.S. citizens departed by sea and air during 1952. This was an increase of 22 per cent over the preceding year.

"The breakdown in citizen trav'-el,' Hayes stated, "shows 477,811 going by air and 334,833 by sea. The European total of 322,868, however, shows 206,559 going by sea and 116,309 by air."

Last year the majority of Americans abroad were in the $3,000-$7,000 income bracket. This represents an all-time record in foreign travel.

PLAIN TALK

"It Pays to Advertise" department: Baseball, especially if the Cubs are playing, takes precedence over most anything else with us, and we have been frank to admit this weakness. So when there was an extra adult ticket for the Mt. Prospect public school safety patrol outing Mr. Murphy invited the writer to use it.

After a lapse of fifteen years, Wrigley Field was just as attractive as always. TV games are pretty good, but they can't compare with the color and pageantry of the players in their white uniforms against the green grass, the sky so blue above, the noise and excitement, of being there in person.

Before the kids were even seated, peanut and popcorn vendors swarmed down the rows. One popcorn man put on quite an act, warning the boys to take hold of the bags gingerly or they'd burn their fingers, it was so hot. "A pound of butter in every bag," was his chant.

We might as well get into the discussion of why people watch boxing. The other night one of the contestants nearly experienced his most embarrassing moment. After pulling up the lad's boxing trunks for him several times, the referee stopped the fight long enough to tuck them in securely. The announcer had a good time inquiring if anyone had a handy safety-pin.

The number of hardy parents who accompanied their Camp Fire and Blue Bird daughters on a bird hike in Elk Grove forest preserve last week reminded us of a conversation with a nature lover.

Mother admitted she didn't arise and prepare father's breakfast, since he rode to town on the 6:26 train, and that, she said, was an unearthly hour. "It's heavenly," he said.

Breakfast cooked over open fires was the most sucsessful part of the bird hike. The birds were there all right, their sweet morning songs filling the air, but few were spotted by the 75 youngsters who trekked through the woods.

Watching the concluding program of the Victory at Sea series, which showed the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, the flame of patriotism did not burn brightly in our heart. We cannot be pround of those bombings. Killing all those civilians saved the lives of many others. Hostilities must be ended, and if using the atom bomb was the only way, then it must be used. Reasons on end may be given in justification, and we agree with all of them, but after so many heroic battles, it is a shame the "cease fire" had to be brought about by bombing cities.

While being unpatriotic, let's voice an objection to the barrage of fiction, mostly magazine stories, portraying all crooks as Russians. It's poor taste, we believe.

Americans are prone to take their heritage for granted. The army camps springing up around the perimeter of Chicago are grim warnings. They speak louder than any magazine story, any cartoon, any anti-subversive legislation.

The supply of gamma globulin for polio patients this summer will far short of the need, health authorities predict. Parents are cautioned to take all preventive measures recommended so their children will not be stricken. Efforts are being made to accelerate the blood donor program so more gamma globulin will be available.

Good news on this subject is that a vaccine to prevent the disease is being perfected. It will be wonderful if, a few years from now, we can look back on polio as a hasbeen, just as diphtheria is now rare.

Careless Driver

On Sunday, May 17, as we were driving north on State rd., Arlington Heights, in front of St. James Catholic church after the 11:30 Mass, someone suddenly pulled away from the curb on my right, without looking, forcing me to stop suddenly in order to avoid hitting him. In stopping quickly as I did, it threw my nineteen month old son to the floor, causing him head injuries requiring medical attention.

I immediately called the policeman on duty—pointed the car out to him and asked him to stop the car that pulled out ignoring traffic. This officer stated he was too busy directing traffic and didn't know which car I meant. I could not take the time out to argue with him as my son was in serious need of medical attention. We rushed him to the doctor's office, which resulted in sutures on the bridge of the nose.

I then reported the incident to the desk sergeant and officer on duty at the police station. They both agreed that the officer directing traffic at St. James was not doing his duty in permitting the other driver to get away. They stated these officers on duty at these spots are "special policemen" and there's nothing we can do about it."

We have every respect for our local officers and having been a resident of Arlington Heights previous to living in Mt. Prospect. I have never had anything but the highest regard for the local officers. However, this incident is bringing a great deal of doubt to my mind with a number of questions, among them—Are our officers of the law being instructed efficiently to give the citizens full protection? Secondly, if we cannot depend on the officers to be able to protect us in emergencies—what is their purpose?

We hope the driver of the gunmetal grey Dodge without a license plate will read this, as we know he had several small children with him and feel that in the good interests of these children, he should certainly learn the rules of safe driving before something more serious happens.

Most Readers Want To Retain Referendum On New Taxes

That local people want the right to decide on new or increased taxing power for local governments is being proven by first returns on Paddock Publications' poll among readers.

Adjoining ballot was published two weeks ago, giving readers a chance to state their preference as to whether referendum controls should be removed by the general assembly in Springfield.

Just three readers have indicated they favor removal of referendum controls and to trust local government officials to decide. This is the last time this ballot will appear. Votes received through Monday, June 1, will be tabulated and sent on to general assembly members from this district.

Do you believe the people in your area want the right to decide on new or increased taxing power for their local governments through referendum? ☐

OR

Do you believe the people in your area would be willing for the General Assembly to remove referendum restrictions and give local government officials the power to decide? ☐

Channel Eleven

On May 28 and 29 Arlington Heights residents will be asked to contribute to the fund for channel 11, the educational TV channel proposed for Chicago.

Of the $1,100,000 needed to establish and maintain such a channel the Ford Foundation has promised $150,000 and the Chicago Board of Education $150,000. The remaining $800,000 must be raised by June 2 from individuals, corporations, communities and surrounding cities in the 60-mile radius to be covered.

This will be the first, last and only appeal for help. The sponsoring institutions expect to maintain the channel permanently and provide the finest kind of "entertaining enlightenment" in the fields of science and human relations, music, art, literature and drama—the possibilities are limitless. It is the opportunity of a lifetime to bring the world of wisdom and culture into your own living room.

Be a charter member of channel 11. Every citizen of Arlington Heights can, by contributing, count himself a sponsor in company with such institutions as the universities of Illinois, Chicago, Northwestern, Loyola, DePaul, the museums of Natural History, Science and Industry, the Art Institute, the Orchestral association—to name only a few of the 20 sponsoring groups.

Village Revenue

Attention, Mayor McKown of Palatine, Mayor Goedke of Arlington Heights, and Mayor Theodore Lams of Mt. Prospect!

I am passing on to you fellows a suggestion received from a fellow passenger for a source of additional municipal revenue. He is a mayor of a town 60 miles from St. Paul, Minnesota. The village limits the sale of liquid refreshments in local taverns to 3.2 beer.

The village, which has only 2,000 population, operates its own liquor package store and its own cocktail bar, from the profit of which they erected a $300,000 village hall which has been donated to the county for a court house.

Our informant says that more and more towns in Minnesota are going in the liquor business, which enables them to provide the municipality with a lot of extras.

When we remonstrated with him as to such a policy, he replied, "a village has the right to sell water, why not liquor. Besides a municipality bar tender will not be tempted to sell liquor to minors or allow a man to get drunk. We do not have to hire extra policemen to enforce closing hours, either. We make the laws and obey the laws. Our profit last year was $35,000."

In the Future

An ultra-violet light, which shows the dentist cavities he couldn't even detect with his probe, is offered by a lamp company . . . High-fidelity record enthusiasts can now buy an aerosol spray for coating their records to keep down static pops and dust . . . Casement windows adjustable to accommodate room air-conditioners recognize the growing market for this summer comforter . . . Early Methodists Take Church to Palatine to Drive Out Profanity

We came across a booklet this week published in 1887, 65 years ago, by Rev. Henry Lea, who at that time was pastor of Palatine Methodist church. The booklet gives the early history of Methodism in northern Illinois, telling of the difficulties facing the circuit riders of those days. It will be republished in these columns in three installments.

This week's installment of Methodism in this area includes the period of the 1850s.

In 1854 Brother J. J. Gridley came to the Wheeling circuit. He was an intense abolitionist; and when preaching at Elk Grove on this subject his text was from Psalm 94:20, "Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law?"

A pro-slavery listener sneered at first, but by and by her black eyes snapped, as the preacher unmercifully riddled the institution of slavery.

ON ANOTHER OCCASION, this time a temperance meeting, a number of preachers were on the platform, and Gov. Bross was addressing the meeting. He spoke of the advance in temperance sentiment, referring to the old days when, in his father's house, many a preacher had sought inspiration from the bottle. Then turning to the preachers, he said: "What would be thought if you preachers should seek help from such a source?"

Quick as a flash, Brother Gridley answered, "If we did, the inspiration would be more spirituous than spiritual." This brought down the house.

Brother Jones had been twenty years a useful local preacher when he joined Conference in 1848. He was one of the founders of the Woman's college at Evanston, and was for years at its head. He was also a poet of no mean order.

In 1856 came H. S. Trumbull An amusing incident concerning Brother Trumbull is well authenticated. Preaching on one occasion at Deer Grove, in a house now occupied by Mr. Schoppe, he stood in a hall between two rooms. He said afterwards, that by turning first to one room, and then to the other, he tried to give each half of his congregation an equal share of the sermon.

THIS WAS a transition time for Methodism in Palatine township. The one time hope of a village and church building at Deer Grove had faded out. Palatine was becoming the center and was already a growing village. As the organization was made and perfected at Palatine, the Deer Grove class was dissolved, part coming to Palatine, and part going to Barrington and other points.

In the fall of 1857 Thomas Cochran was appointed to Wheeling circuit. The appointments were Elk Grove, Deer Grove, Barrington, Wauconda, Fairfield, and Buffalo Grove. Local preachers were the only ministerial help, hence Bro. Cochran reached each appointment but once in three weeks, and never failed to find souls eager for the gospel; "the word of the Lord was precious in those days."

AT THIS TIME, Palatine was a small village without church, Sabbath school, or any kind of religious service.

Sunday was given over to drinking, profanity, secular business; hitherto it had been passed by, apparently as a hopeless point.

There were but few Christians, who held their church membership elsewhere. In November, 1857, preaching services were commenced in the school house, and held once in four weeks. A few members were secured and organized into a Methodist class; a small but important beginning.

IN THE WINTER following a large revival at Elk Grove inspired the faithful few at Palatine with hope and desire. So a four weeks' series of meetings was held in the Palatine school house. The mere announcement aroused opposition; parties, dances and sleigh rides were multiplied to distract attention, but the Christian few were in earnest and invaded stores, shops and houses in Christ's name.

More than once the faithful pastor was told to mind his own business.

But opposition was futile and soon ceased; the influence of the meeting was felt miles around; and the school house was crowded till scarcely space enough remained for a mourner's bench. One of the ringleaders of the opposition, G. W. Hawks, was converted, and afterwards did twelve years useful work as a preacher in Rock River conference.

SAYS COCHRAN, "That meeting was the turning point in the history of Palatine. It was like the opening of spring after a cold and dreary winter; it was the visitation of abundance after the destroying famine; it was peace after the conflict on the battlefield; it was health from the borders of the grave."

Brother Cochran mentions several very thrilling conversions. We give space for one in detail, and wish we had room for all. Says Brother C: "One evening of the meeting while Christians and mourners were earnestly pleading for the salvation of sinners, a young lady broke out into the most intense supplication for herself and her father.

So earnestly did she pray, that as the voice was new in the meeting, it was supposed that some old Christian had dropped in that evening with her unconverted parent.

"She was kneeling with body erect, her head a little thrown back, her hands clasped and with her apparently trained voice, like an experiencel leader of some praying band, she was pleading for her father, and at intervals for herself.

"AT ONE PERIOD she said, 'Father, I am determined to go to heaven. Will you not come and go with me? O! come with me and sister, and go to heaven: if not, then good-bye, father!' This was like an electric shock; every one felt the power of her prayer and exhortation." The young lady was converted that night, and the remainder of the family soon followed her.

Just Around The Corner

from PATTY McARDLE

Dear Peg:

Here I sit in our hotel room—the sunshine streaming in through the window (the first time in four days)—feeling like a lady of luxury. Although this sort of life could fast grow tiresome, I'm still basking in the pleasures of late-sleeping (that means 8:00 a. m.), dining out and sight-seeing.

It was grey, wet and miserable the day we left Chicago—but nothing, not even the rain could dampen our spirits. The Motor Club had suggested that we take the direct west route to Boston, traveling by way of the Pennsylvania turnpike, going through Philadelphia, New York and up to Boston. However, a good friend of Bob's, who made the trip to Boston frequently, urged us to take the northern way and I'm sure it was a much more scenic trip.

WE HAD HOPED to reach Cleveland before dark the first day, but we got a late start from home, so we didn't get there until about 8:30 that night. As soon as we arrived, we started looking for a motel and to our delight, found a perfectly charming one right on our road. After a light dinner at a nearby restaurant, we came back to our motel and literally fell into bed.

It couldn't have been more than a couple of hours later that I was awakened by a low, rumbling noise, which became louder and louder and took on all the sounds of an approaching train, in fact so approaching I was certain the engine was headed directly for our room!

To my surprise, it didn't actually come through the room, but for all the roar and rumble (three more times that night) it might have. A quick glance out our back door, the next morning, revealed that our little motel was sitting right next to a heavy duty railroad track. You can be sure that we made a careful investigation of our sleeping quarters after that.

FROM CLEVELAND we followed the lake up to Erie, Pa., and in a few hours were traveling across the state of New York. The little towns that we passed through on our way to Cazenovia, N. Y., where we were to stay the second night, were so quaint and interesting—stately, white Colonial homes, surrounded by beautiful green lawns and flowers, then again, little, old, narrow houses painted red with white shutters, whose doors practically opened onto the red brick streets.

As planned, we were in Cazenovia that night and ate our dinner at Lincklaen House—very pretty but expensive (without just cause). We both enjoyed the last leg of our trip into Boston the most, I think, Surely, springtime is one of the prettiest seasons of the year in the mountains! Every shade of green, strong in its own color, from the palest green of the baby maples, to the deepest blue-green of the tall, straight firs, shone in the rolling landscape.

FOR A LONG WHILE, our road twisted and turned, following the path of a clear little brook, which ran swiftly over rocks and under bridges beside us. Along the edge of the stream, dotting the landscape, were delicate white and deep pink cherry and plum trees. It was Nature in her most beautiful dress.

We reached Boston in the late afternoon and had no trouble finding the Sheraton Plaza. Since the convention didn't start until the next day, we had plenty of time to relax and take in one of the famous eating places that night. When our taxi driver pulled up in front of what appeared to be an alley, and told us that Locke-Ober's was located "right down there," I couldn't believe it. But as soon as we were inside the very plain dining room, and eating our delicious seafood, I knew why this place is so well known. (The second famous place to eat in Boston is Durgin-Park, in the market area. We ate there last night and all had a piece of roast beef two inches thick—and I'm not kidding!).

I ENJOYED SO MUCH the trip through this fascinating, historic city, with its narrow, steep streets, crowded, old brownstones and beautiful parks and lakes, the day the ladies of the convention took the tour. I was aboard the frigate Constitution (now in the state of being repaired), inside Paul Revere's home (kept just as it was in his day), inside the Old North Church of Paul Revere fame (in which stands the first organ made in America), passed by Bunker Hill monument, and made the "ride" that Paul Revere took to Concord and Lexington, visiting the battle fields and seeing the originaly statue of the Minute Man.

On this tour, we had our luncheon at the Wayside Inn, a rambling, huge, red frame house, in which La Fayette and his soldiers stayed on their way to and from the Colonial Wars, and which was the setting for Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's "Tales of a Wayside Inn."

Really, Peg, we have seen so much that I couldn't begin to tell you all about it, and I can't believe, myself, that we have visited all these wonderful historical places. Well, dear, I'm off now to the Fine Arts Museum, one of the finest in the country, I understand. Goodbye, for now, from Boston.

My love,
Patty.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

by Leland Ellis Truxell

I am convinced that man's present mode of living is leading him into greater and greater difficulties. The history of the past forty years speaks for itself. Almost continual war, unrest, social, political and economic crisis has plagued the world during that time. For some time now an idea has been growing in my mind that we are paying the penalty for our rebellion against God and nature.

Man is natural and spiritual His body is grown from the products of the soil. The things he wears come from the wool of the sheep, the hide of animals, their fur, and other sources. His home is made from soil, timber, minerals and stone. His body breathes the air, absorbs the invigorating, warming rays of the sun. As a creation of God his affinity with God is as natural as his affinity to the food he eats and the clothes he wears or the house he lives in.

Although all creatures and plants in existence except man live in accordance with God's laws, man has been in constant revolt since the day of his creation. He does not eat the foods he should in the condition they should be eaten. He does not get the sleep or exercise he needs. Society is continually becoming more complicated; and more people are cracking from the strain. As we grow further away from God and the protection of his power and love, we lose faith; and as we lose faith, we grow in fear and insecurity. When we do not obey His moral laws, our health is further depleted, our peace of mind is destroyed.

IF WE LOOK AROUND us at the world today, we can see to what extent we have departed from God and nature. Present world conditions are a forewarning of what they will be in another fifty or hundred years. True, many of us are living longer, but more of us are ill and unhappy. The handwriting on the wall seems plain: we must get back to God and nature; to whole grain foods derived from natural, organic grown grains and vegetables; enough sleep and exercise; and a faith in God which will relieve us of worry, insecurity and fear. Man must become a part of nature and God once more in order to find happiness and peace of mind.

JOE'S TRADING POST

At Joe's is still worth 100 cents even though it may be worth forty cents elsewhere, you can still get an honest dollar's worth at Joe's. My motto—buy cheap, sell cheap. Ask some of my regular customers and they will tell you the same thing; you'll always buy it cheaper at Joe's. I have several truck loads of new mdse. in a warehouse which will be delivered to the post as space permits. Here are some specials for this week.

* * *

Elec. phonograph $7; small dresser $9; also one for $6; drop leaf table $6; lawn mower $7; small radio $5; child's bed complete $6; lamp shades $1 ea.; lamp $1 and up; 38x12 tractor tires and tubes $20 ea.; 36x11 tractor tires (new) $47.50 ea.; 7.50x20 implement tires (new) $17.50 ea.; 30 gal. oil fired h. w. tank like new $45; double garage door $25; window screens 50c and up; white paint $2.25 gal.; furniture & rug shampoo 35c large bottle; linoleum lacquer 65c qt.; paint & varnish remover, Reg. 3.95 gal. only $2.65 per gal.; 4 hr. enamel 20 & 30c per can.

2 TRUCK LOADS

of hardware, paints, plumbing fittings; all kinds of brass valves and miscellaneous household items will be delivered this week. INDIAN-INSPIRED

Kamera Korner

Even though you own hundreds of dollars worth of photographic equipment, don't overlook the many pleasures of a simple box camera.

According to Don Mohler, G-E photographic lighting specialist, the range of the simple box camera has been extended tremendously with synchronized flash.

The more expert photographer will find the box camera offers a real challenge to his skill. Here are a few hints for portrait pictures with a simple box camera.

Use a portrait attachment so you can work close. Put the box camera on a tripod so that it will be "rock steady" at the moment of exposure . Use a medium speed pan film such as plus X or supreme.

Now for the lighting. With flash on the camera you'll achieve better modelling of your subject's features than at a greater distance. In fact, the closer the light source to the subject the more contrast there is in the lighting.

However, use a diffuse flash guard or a clean white handkerchief over the bulb and reflector to cut down the amount of light to a normal exposure level. Be sure to keep your camera steady. Crop and enlarge the portrait which will have surprising detail.

For another interesting technique, take your subject to a large mirror. Arrange the person as close to the mirror as possible with full profile to the camera. Now, shift your position until you see a full face image in the mirror. Be sure you cannot see yourself in the mirror and then shoot. You'll have both a simultaneous profile and full face. What's more, the mirror image will show a nice double lighting effect.

Libertyville Debates Rent Control and Fares

John Q. Citizen—of the commuter and renter variety—is going to be asked to speak up at two meetings next month, according to decisions made at the Libertyville board meeting.

Meetings on two consecutive nights, June 2 and June 3, will delve into the questions of (1) the proposed fare boost and service decrease on the Milwaukee Road and (2) the demise of rent control in Libertyville.

Lessons In .... English

WORDS OFTEN MISUSED

"Always" (one word) means at all times. "All ways" (two words) means in every way.

Do not say, "His talk treated on subjects of general interest." Say, "His talk treated of subjects."

Distinguish between "comprehensible" (understandable) and "comprehensive" (including a great deal). "His anxiety is comprehensible." "This comprehensive work covers the entire history of the country."

While the expression "to grow smaller" is often used by good writers, it is just as easy to say "to become smaller." "Grow" means increase in size.

Do not say, "Will you gentlemen help us?" It is better to say, "Will you men help us," when referring merely to sex.

Do not say, "I was kind of warm when I arrived." Say, "I was somewhat warm."

WORDS OFTEN MISPRONOUCED

Elixir. Pronounce e-lik-ser, first e as in me unstressed, i as in lick, accent second syllable.

Gazetteer. Pronounce gaz-e-ter, a as in at, first e as in let unstressed, second e as in here, principal accent on last syllable.

Reconnoiter. Pronounce rek-o-noi-ter, e as in reckon (not as in reek), principal accent on third syllable.

Metallurgy. Pronounce met-al-ur-ji, e as in met, a unstressed, u as in fur, i as in it, principal accent on first syllable, secondary accent on third syllable.

Recondite (concealed). Preferred pronounciation is rek-un-dit, e as in reckon, u as in fun, i as in ice, accent on first syllable.

WORDS OFTEN MISSPELLED

Idle (inactive); idol (an image). Hoard (to collect and lay up); horde a multitude of human beings). Holey (having holes); holly (tree); holy (sacred); wholly (entirely). Condescend; observe the sc. Abdomen, men; abdominal, in. Incendiary; observe the iary.

WORD STUDY

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Foible; a failing; a weak point; frailty. "The story told of the fun and foibles of this happy family."

Sumptuously; costly; luxuriously. "The halls were sumptuously decorated."

Infringe; to commit a breach of; trespass. "I do not wish to infringe upon your rights."

Deliberation; consideration of the reasons for and against a measure. "After hours of deliberation, he reached this decision."

Modern Etiquette

Q. How and when does the bridegroom give his fee to the minister who performs the wedding ceremony?

A. The bridegroom should give the money or check (enclosed in an envelope) to his best man, who gives it to the minister after the ceremony, and of course privately.

Q. Is it considered proper for a woman to adjust her makeup at the table after dining in a public restaurant?

A. This was formerly frowned upon, but society has now relented enough to condone the repairs most women deem necessary to their lips and shiny noses after eating.

Q. Is it necessary for a young woman to rise when being introduced to the mother of a girl friend?

A. Most certainly; to remain seated would be exceedingly ill-bred.

K. When friends, who have moved into a new home, invite you to an "open house," are you obligated to bring a gift.

A. No; this is merely an invitation to visit these friends and see their new home. If, however, your are giving a "housewarming" in their honor, then, of course, you are expected to give a gift.

Q. Should a man ever hand his coat to a woman for her to assist him in putting it on?

A. Only if he is rheumatic or very feeble. Otherwise, he should be capable of getting into his coat without the woman's assistance.

Q. I should like to have my mother serve as my matron-of-honor at my wedding. Is this all right?

A. Yes. And the bridegroom is privileged to choose his father as his best man, too.

Q. What should a woman do when calling unexpectedly on a friend, if she finds that her friend is ready to go out?

A. She may say, "I see you are ready to go out; I won't keep you." However, if her friend insists that she stay awhile, it is all right for her to remain, but not longer than ten or fifteen minutes.

Q. When pouring wine from the bottle, should the bottle be grasped by the neck, the label, or where?

A. Hold the bottle by the labeled part.

A. You can never be out of place with "Sincerely yours."

Q. It is really improper to butter an entire slice of bread before beginning to eat at the dinner table?

A. Yes, it is. The proper, and only accepted, way is to break off one mouthful at a time and butter it.

White From Orange

White shellac is orange shellac that has been bleached.

Five Million Now Drawing Social Security

At the end of February 1953 over 5,200,000 persons were drawing federal old-age and survivors insurance benefits, Julius Berman, manager of the Northwest Social Security field office said. "Eighty-two percent of all jobs are now covered by this program, and over 66½ million persons have been working long enough in covered employment or self-employment to be insured," Mr. Berman declared.

Mr. Berman said monthly benefit amounts were increased by the Social Security Act amendments of 1950 and again in 1952, so that, as of January 1953, the average amount of monthly benefits to a retired wage earner without dependents is now about $49.44 per month. For a retired worker with benefits based on earnings since 1950, the average monthly benefit is about $65.00.

The social security administration field office is located at 5306 Lawrence ave., Chicago. They also provide service for Northwest suburban residents on Tuesdays from 10 a. m. to 12 noon at the Des Plaines post office.

HOW TO TAKE THE GAMBLE OUT OF USED CAR BUYING

Before you buy any used car, ask yourself: Who can I be sure will give me a square deal? When you buy your used cars from an authorized dealer you are dealing with responsible people who will sell you only reliable cars. We have a reputation to maintain; trained mechanics do a real repair and reconditioning job wherever needed. We deliver a car to you that you will be happy to own and makes you glad you came to us.

You can set your mind at rest on the biggest question about any used car; "is it in good mechanical condition — what unknown troubles and expenses do I face?"
